Radical People's Theatre Eugène Van Erven, 1988 Radical People's Theatre Eugène Van Erven, 1988 Staging Resistance Jeanne Marie Colleran, Jenny S. Spencer, 1998 Fresh perspectives on political theater and its essential contribution to contemporary culture Focused studies of individual plays complement broad based discussions of the place of theater in a radically democratic society This consistently challenging collection describes the art of change confronting the actual processes of change 17 photos Transnational Chinese Theatres Rossella Ferrari, 2020-02-17 This is the first systematic study of networks of performance collaboration in the contemporary Chinese speaking world and of their interactions with the artistic communities of the wider East Asian region It investigates the aesthetics and politics of collaboration to propose a new transnational model for the analysis of Sinophone theatre cultures and to foreground the mobility and relationality of intercultural performance in East Asia The research draws on extensive fieldwork interviews with practitioners and direct observation of performances rehearsals and festivals in Asia and Europe It offers provocative close readings and discourse analysis of an extensive corpus of hitherto untapped sources including unreleased video materials and unpublished scripts production notes and archival documentation Popular Theatre Joel Schechter, 2013-10-11 Bertolt Brecht turned to cabaret Ariane Mnouchkine went to the circus Joan Littlewood wanted to open a palace of fun These were a few of the directors who turned to popular theatre forms in the last century and this sourcebook accounts for their attraction Popular theatre forms introduced in this sourcebook include cabaret circus puppetry vaudeville Indian jatra political satire and physical comedy These entertainments are highly visual itinerant and readily understood by audiences Popular Theatre A Sourcebook follows them around the world from the bunraku puppetry of Japan to the masked topeng theatre of Bali to South African political satire the San Francisco Mime Troupe's comic melodramas and a Fun Palace proposed for London The book features essays from the archives of The Drama Review and other research Contributions by Roland Barthes Hovey Burgess Marvin Carlson John Emigh Dario Fo Ron Jenkins Joan Littlewood Brooks McNamara Richard Schechner and others offer some of the most important informative and lively writing available on popular theatre Introducing both Western and non Western popular theatre practices the sourcebook provides access to theatrical forms which have delighted audiences and attracted stage artists around the world Asian City Crossings Rossella Ferrari, Ashley Thorpe, 2021-05-17 Asian City Crossings is the first volume to examine the relationship between the city and performance from an Asian perspective This collection introduces city as method as a new conceptual framework for the investigation of practices of city based performing arts collaboration and city to city performance networks across East and Southeast Asia and beyond The shared and yet divergent histories of the global cities of Hong Kong and Singapore as postcolonial multiethnic multicultural and multilingual sites are taken as points of departure to demonstrate how city as method facilitates a comparative analytical space that foregrounds in betweenness and fluid positionalities It situates inter

Asian relationality and inter city referencing as centrally significant dynamics in the exploration of the material and ideological conditions of contemporary performance and performance exchange in Asia This study captures creative dialogue that travels city based pathways along the Hong Kong Singapore route as well as between Hong Kong and Singapore and other cities through scholarly analyses and practitioner reflections drawn from the fields of theatre performance and music This book combines essays by scholars of Asian studies theatre studies ethnomusicology and human geography with reflective accounts by Hong Kong and Singapore based performing arts practitioners to highlight the diversity vibrancy and complexity of creative projects that destabilise notions of identity belonging and nationhood through strategies of collaborative conviviality and transnational mobility across multi sited networks of cities in Asia In doing so this volume fills a considerable gap in global scholarly discourse on performance and the city and on the production and circulation of the performing arts in Asia
