Dean,2016-05-13 What is the church What is its mission in the world Modern Protestantism s inability to provide a clear answer to these seemingly simple questions has resulted in vast confusion amongst pastors about the nature of their calling and has left congregations languishing without a clear reason for existence Many of the voices and allegiances competing for the churches attention have rushed in to fill the void with the result that the church in modernity has frequently found itself captive to the prevailing culture Yet from within the belly of highly culturally accommodated churches both the German pastor theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the American theological ethicist Stanley Hauerwas were able to articulate compelling visions of churches freed from their cultural captivity in order to truly and freely serve God and neighbor Against the complex and confusing backdrops of Nazi Germany and late twentieth and early twenty first century America respectively Bonhoeffer and Hauerwas sought to recover the ethical and political character of the Christian faith through recalling the church back to the christological center of its faith Together they provide a rich set of complementary and at times mutually correcting resources for the contemporary church as it seeks to faithfully bear witness to Christ amidst the ruins of Christendom The History of Continental Philosophy Alan D. Schrift,2013-04-12 From Kant to Kierkegaard from Hegel to Heidegger continental philosophers have indelibly shaped the trajectory of Western thought since the eighteenth century Although much has been written about these monumental thinkers students and scholars lack a definitive guide to the entire scope of the continental tradition The most comprehensive reference work to date this eight volume History of Continental Philosophy will both encapsulate the subject and reorient our understanding of it Beginning with an overview of Kant s philosophy and its initial reception the History traces the evolution of continental philosophy through major figures as well as movements such as existentialism phenomenology hermeneutics and poststructuralism The final volume outlines the current state of the field bringing the work of both historical and modern thinkers to bear on such contemporary topics as feminism globalization and the environment Throughout the volumes examine important philosophical figures and developments in their historical political and cultural contexts The first reference of its kind A History of Continental Philosophy has been written and edited by internationally recognized experts with a commitment to explaining complex thinkers texts and movements in rigorous yet jargon free essays suitable for both undergraduates and seasoned specialists These volumes also elucidate ongoing debates about the nature of continental and analytic philosophy surveying the distinctive sometimes overlapping characteristics and approaches of each tradition Featuring helpful overviews of major topics and plotting road maps to their underlying contexts A History of Continental Philosophy is destined to be the resource of first and last resort for students and scholars alike

Human Rights on Trial Justine Lacroix, Jean-Yves Pranchère, 2018-05-31 The first systematic analysis of the arguments made against human rights from the French Revolution to the present day Through the writings of Edmund Burke Jeremy Bentham Auguste Comte Louis de Bonald Joseph de Maistre Karl Marx Carl Schmitt and Hannah Arendt the authors explore the divergences and convergences between these classical arguments against human rights and the contemporary critiques made both in Anglo American and French political philosophy Human Rights on Trial is unique in its marriage of history of ideas with normative theory and its integration of British North American and continental debates on human rights It offers a powerful rebuttal of the dominant belief in a sharp division between human rights today and the rights of man proclaimed at the end of the eighteenth century It also offers a strong framework for a democratic defence of human rights
