Disassociation Sophia Z. Kovachevich, 2025-07-07 The book looks at some of the problems in our world today It is based on extensive research It shows the problems that colonisation brought into the world and how that has permeated into the very fabric of society It shows the beginning of genocides and concentration camps and the present state of both in the 21st century world It also looks at where the greatest threats to the world peace are posed today which countries are still in the throes of genocide what is the connection between eugenics and killing Further it covers information pertinent to our world today but which very few lay people have any concept about We live in this world It is our world We should all make an attempt to care for our world to the best of our ability and avoid dissension and war whenever possible War brings nothing good to anyone but fosters a lot of negativity among nation countries cultures and religions in the world This book is about bringing awareness to the precarious position our world and environment is in If wars continue at this rate the soil air water will be so polluted and poisoned cancers and other unknown diseases rampant that future generations and all living creatures will be horribly affected as in the Mekong Delta with much less poison We must protect our descendants from such folly It is our duty

Aussie Soldier Denny Neave, Craig Smith, 2009-03-01 The second book in the Aussie Soldier series Aussie Soldier Prisoners of War by Denny Neave and Craig Smith details the lives of the men and women who found themselves on the wrong side of the wire This collection of heartfelt stories and anecdotes from Australian POWs will take you on their very personal journeys Surviving as a prisoner of war required as much strength of character as any hard fought battle Some lived to tell their tales about extreme suffering mateship and hardship and many would carry with them forever the memories of those who died Almost 35 000 Australian service personnel were taken prisoner during the Boer War World War 1 World War 2 and the Korean War As POWs are relatively few in number their stories often take a back seat when it comes to tales about battles and conflict situations Like most soldiers former prisoners do not like reliving the horrors of war and their time in captivity This is a collection of the stories of our Australian POWs Interviews questionnaires written records images and letters provide an insight into captivity and the joy and fears that came with their release These vivid and compelling stories highlight the contradictions of war the compassion and generosity on the one hand and the cruelty hate and indifference on the other Escape, Survive - or Die Bryn Evans,2025-08-30 During the Second World War countless millions of men and women both in the armed forces and civilian life found themselves in life or death situations with the odds stacked against them Inevitably in the vast majority of cases their experiences and the outcomes will never come to light but when they do we can only feel inspired In this thought provoking book the author has unearthed numerous diverse accounts which make fascinating reading It covers individuals fighting in jungles deserts on and below the seas in mountains valleys and plains prison camps in battles in the sky or as fugitives hunted in enemy territory In almost every corner of the world in innumerable conditions of extreme adversity our forbears confronted an unavoidable choice escape survive or die This superb collection of stories shows us the resilience and stoicism that we need to face the ultimate challenge The most powerful force of democratic countries is the determination and self sacrifice of ordinary individuals to endure and fight for their families their country and freedom Survivors personal accounts in Escape Survive or Die have the power to inspire and sustain us in the never ending struggle for liberty just as the Ukrainians fighting the Russian invasion are doing so gallantly today Fighting Monsters Richard Wallace Braithwaite,2016 Only six escapees survived the Sandakan death marches of 1945 in North Borneo the worst atrocity ever inflicted on Australian soldiers 1787 Australian and 641 British POWs perished Previous descriptions of the numerous violent acts have yielded little understanding of a situation where the real struggle was to keep one s humanity when so many were losing theirs whether Allied POWs local residents of Borneo Javanese slave labourers or Japanese soldiers Understanding this extraordinary story is aided by reference to a wide range of sources in different countries and disciplines and by examining the perspectives of all players in this terrible game of survival An unusual and extreme POW story the Sandakan tragedy had four stages active resistance in 1942 3 stubborn endurance in 1943 4 the collapse of civilized existence in 1945 and finally the postwar decades of torment for the six damaged survivors the gradual assimilation of the story the healing of the damage and the commemoration of the tragedy by the families and communities involved Richard Wallace Braithwaite s father was one of the six survivors of the Sandakan death marches of 1945 He died in 1986 still wanting the story to be properly told This led to a project that has lasted for much of the last forty years of the author s life culminating in this book With a scientific background Richard worked for many years with CSIRO and universities in the biological and social sciences and in historical research His extensive and diverse research history and lifelong personal immersion in the story has given him a unique perspective in exploring the complexities of the Sandakan tragedy Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Sparrow Grant McLachlan,2012-11-11 Sparrow is a seldom heard but uplifting story of the Sparrows the Battle of Britain gunners who defended Timor as part of Sparrow Force It is the story of Charlie McLachlan s war a triumph of stubborn Scottish defiance and laconic Aussie genius over the relentless violence of man and nature From the Rudolph Hess crash landing to the atom bomb from history's last bayonet charge to the war's greatest aerial bombardment Charlie McLachlan survives and bears witness to some of the landmark days of World War II At one time or other in his four year ordeal he is fired upon by the armies navies and or air forces of Germany Japan Australia the Netherlands Great Britain and the United States of America pretty much everyone but the Russians He defies or evades the ravages of tropical ulcers tropical heat alpine cold gangrene cholera malaria beriberi dysentery mosquitoes crocodiles snakes sharks scorpions sadistic Sikhs Japanese hellships falling coconuts flying shrapnel beatings beheadings bullets bombs bayonets torpedoes a crushed leg a fractured skull malnutrition and premature cremation He's presumed dead by the British Army left for dead by Japanese guards and declared dead by a Dutch Javanese doctor Yet through it all Charlie soldiers on Half a world away his wife Mary fashioned from the same mental granite stoically awaits his return Not even an official telegram confirming the near certainty of Charlie's death or later rumours of his torture can shake her iron faith Sparrow Force the force that defended Timor in 1942 was one of Australia's most successful military units At the lowest point in the Second World War these soldiers equipped with First World War weapons and cut off from Australia waged a commando campaign that held off Japan's most successful and elite special force Low in medicine and ammunition they built an improvised radio that regained contact with their homeland It was the first good news of the war for the Allies Sparrow Force was unique They were the first force to defeat Japan in battle and they were the last to be captured Those who escaped to pursue a guerrilla campaign spent more time in combat against the Japanese than any other Allied unit They were set up to fail instead they endured defied and succeeded Newsreels were made victories were recorded medals were awarded and Australia's morale was elevated As Winston Churchill famously said They alone did not surrender

Railway of Hell Reginald Burton, 2002 A young captain in the Royal Norfolk Regiment Reggie Burton was wounded in the closing stages of the disastrous defense of Malaya and Singapore He vividly yet calmly and with great dignity describes the horror of captivity at the hands of the Japanese After initial confusion the true nature of their captors emerged as increasingly debilitated the POWs were forced into backbreaking work This was only a taste of what was to come Following a horrific journey in overcrowded cattle trucks Burton and his dwindling band of colleagues were put to work building the notorious Burma Railway Somehow he survived to tell this moving and shocking story Anzac and Empire
