Beaches of the Queensland Coast Andrew D. Short, 2005-12-01 This book provides the first description of all Queensland s ocean beaches between Cooktown and Coolangatta including beaches on 18 islands and in several large bays Galway Bay Mary Pat Kelly, 2009-02-09 In the bestselling tradition of Frank Delaney Colleen McCullough and Maeve Binchy comes a poignant historical family saga set against the Famine In a hidden Ireland where fishermen and tenant farmers find solace in their ancient faith songs stories and communal celebrations young Honora Keeley and Michael Kelly wed and start a family Because they and their countrymen must sell both their catch and their crops to pay exorbitant rents potatoes have become their only staple food But when blight destroys the potatoes three times in four years a callous government and uncaring landlords turn a natural disaster into The Great Starvation that will kill one million Honora and Michael vow their children will live The family joins two million other Irish refugees victims saving themselves in the emigration from Ireland Danger and hardship await them in America Honora her unconventional sister Mv ire and their seven sons help transform Chicago from a frontier town to the City of the Century The boys go on to fight in the Civil War and enlist in the cause of Ireland s freedom Spanning six generations and filled with joy sadness and heroism Galway Bay sheds brilliant light on the ancestors of today s forty four million Irish Americans and is a universal story you will never forget Improving Schools Shaun Rawolle, Muriel Wells, Louise Paatsch, Russell Tytler, Coral Campbell, 2015-10-22 This unique book explores school improvement policy from its translation into national contexts and school networks to its implementation in leader and teacher practices in individual schools and classrooms within this network of schools and its impact on students learning It draws on multiple conceptual and theoretical resources to explore the complexities attached to a school improvement process in a network of schools in Australia These conceptual and theoretical resources include discourse practice representation and network concepts common to both policy research as well as studies of leadership and classroom practice They lead to a more detailed understanding of the intersections between educational policy and intervention processes and the complex reality of school processes and teaching practices In the book we trace the implementation of school improvement policies through its multiple phases levels and contexts Our data collection and analysis methods draw on a variety of perspectives in the way different players perceive their roles and the nature of the initiative and the ways in which these intersect The research findings are used to seek productive approaches to school improvement that combine policy integrity with local flexibility The book contributes to the school improvement literature through its exploration of tensions between global and systemic settings and local practices and histories

Carolina Bays Tom Poland,2019-12-23 There is a strange beauty at the heart of every mystery and the mystery of the Carolina Bays is an enigma that is lushly uniquely beautiful How did these odd geomorphological features come to be formed in the landscape in the first place with their uniform shapes and matching elliptical orientations scattered across the Carolinas There are many hypotheses but no definitive answers Why are these inland phenomena even called bays There is no clear answer to that either The best definition of these features are temporary isolated freshwater wetlands variously described as high or flatwater ponds wet weather lakes or vernal pools often identified more accurately as pocosins and they are ecological wonders full of all manner of amphibians and reptiles insects and birds wildlife and plants many of them exotic and rare What also defines them is their uncommon beauty Featuring more than one hundred fifty color images Carolina Bays takes you from an aerial perspective of these unusual bays to an on the ground safari from frogs that croak and bark and boom to skinks that skim across the water as if on skis and on to squawking herons to black and yellow polka dotted caterpillars There are growling alligators and four hundred year old trees and delicate yellow fringed orchids Life is found in astounding abundance These wetlands are unique and almost immeasurably ancient as is to be expected in the modern world they are threatened by human intervention Such diverse habitats and their rich unmatched biodiversity call out for preservation and restoration The bays are not only visited and documented by the authors they make an impassioned case for respecting how important these singular formations are for the health of the planet You could not find more able guides
