Bahr, Baptisto Lopez, Jose Pancho, 2021-11-30 The Tohono O odham of southern Arizona formerly known as the Papago have made a life in a place that many would consider uninhabitable These desert people were converted to Catholicism by early Spanish missionaries yet they retain much of their earlier lifeway as a means of continuing adaptation to their desert environment This book is a restudy of speeches and ritual information collected by anthropologist Underhill beginning in 1931 and published in her book Papago Indian Religion 1946 It describes the Native as opposed to the Christian side of the yearly ritual cycle of the Tohono O odham showing how seven rites form a system of meanings that grew from the relation between these people and their desert homeland The rites presented focus on the summer wine feast salt pilgrimage hunting war and flood The Desert Smells Like Rain Gary Paul Nabhan, 2022-08-30 Published more than forty years ago

The Desert Smells Like Rain remains a classic work about nature how to respect it and what transplants can learn from the longtime residents of the Sonoran Desert the Tohono O odham people In this work Gary Paul Nabhan brings O odham voices to the page at every turn He writes elegantly of how they husband scant water supplies grow crops and utilize edible wild foods Woven through his account are coyote tales O odham children s impressions of the desert and observations of the political problems that come with living on both sides of an international border Nabhan conveys the everyday life and extraordinary perseverance of these desert people This edition includes a new preface written by the author in which he reflects on his gratitude for the O odham people who shared their knowledge with him He writes about his own heritage and connections to the desert climate change and the border He shares his awe and gratitude for O odham writers and storytellers who have been generous enough to share stories with those of us from other cultural traditions so that we may also respect and appreciate the smell of the desert after a rain Religion and Sustainable Agriculture Todd

Walking to Magdalena Seth Schermerhorn, 2019 In Walking to Magdalena Seth Schermerhorn explores a question that is central to the interface of religious studies and Native American and indigenous studies What have Native peoples made of Christianity By focusing on the annual pilgrimage of the Tohono O odham to Magdalena in Sonora Mexico Schermerhorn examines how these indigenous people of southern Arizona have made Christianity their own This walk serves as the entry point for larger questions about what the Tohono O odham have made of Christianity With scholarly rigor and passionate empathy Schermerhorn offers a deep understanding of Tohono O odham Christian traditions as practiced in everyday life and in the words of the O odham themselves The author's rich ethnographic description and analyses are also drawn from his experiences accompanying a group of O odham walkers on their pilgrimage to Saint Francis in Magdalena For many years scholars have agreed that the journey to Magdalena is the largest and most significant event in the annual cycle of Tohono O odham Christianity Never before however has it been the subject of sustained scholarly inquiry Walking to Magdalena offers insight into religious life and expressive culture relying on extensive field study videotaped and transcribed oral histories of the O odham and archival research The book illuminates indigenous theories of personhood and place in the everyday life narratives songs and material culture of the Tohono O odham
