Redeemed Ambition Balancing The Drive To Succeed In Your Work:

Redeemed Ambition Ralph T. Mattson,1995-05 Back to Work! Stephen Adams,2009-10-01 Since the current recession began in December 2007 the American economy has lost a staggering total of 6 5 million jobs The unemployment rate is hovering near 10% for the first time in over a quarter century And still each month several hundred thousand more people are losing their jobs It seems as if words like hope and opportunity have gone the way of our economy For many people the very idea of unemployment not to mention the reality of it is a life changing trauma at the top of their stress list disrupting their lives and marriages and even attacking their sense of self worth For others this unenviable circumstance might well be a blessing in disguise marking the start of a new career path or even self employment It all depends on how it s handled Back to Work is a short easy to read book that will help you cope with the emotional and spiritual effects of job loss from an author who has been there Three times In Back to Work Stephen Adams speaks from experience as he helps you get from wherever you are now to your next career This little book is full of illustrations from Stephen s own life and the lives of other successful career remodelers Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1996-06 Success ,1904 Success Magazine ,1904 Screening the Crisis Hilaria Loyo,Juan A. Tarancón,2022-07-14 The financial collapse of 2008 extended and deepened a prolonged multilayered crisis that has transformed often in unexpected ways how we think about all aspects of social life Amid these turbulent times film studies scholars have begun to ask new questions and create fresh strategies in order to integrate intellectual and political work in ways that directly address our current predicament This timely volume reconsiders the relationships between cinema and society at a time when neoliberal policies threaten not only civic culture but also nearly every aspect of human life Screening the Crisis brings together established authors as well as brilliant young scholars in the field of film studies to explore the ways in which new tendencies in US cinema enhance awareness of the complexity of the problems facing contemporary society The issues addressed include economic inequality shifts in gender roles racial conflicts immigration surveillance practices the environmental crisis the politics of housing and the fragility of nationhood These questions are explored through in depth studies and contextualized analyses of a wide variety of recent films genres and filmmakers With its ample range of topics and perspectives this collection provides an essential reference work for those who want to research how US cinema has responded to the manifold interconnected crises that characterize our current times
