Redpath Vol 1 The History Of A Sugar House:

Redpath Richard Feltoe,1991-08-15 Redpath today a household name for sugar in Canada has its roots in the story of an enterprising Scots immigrant initially a stone mason and later a building contractor during the boom days of Montreal's growth from a small provincial centre to a major North American city In 1854 the ever energetic John Redpath by then a self made millionaire in his late fifties launched a new career as an industrialist With his son Peter and the gifted George Alexander Drummond as manager he established Canada's first successful sugar refinery The Redpath story encompasses the influence of sugar as an economic force the emergence of the elegant social life of cosmopolitan Montreal and a hind sight view of the complexities of the love hate relationship between government and business This the first of two volumes moves through Canada's period of extensive industrialization to the turn of the century the impact of World War I and concludes in the post war years Throughout this period the familiar Redpath trademark a reproduction of John Redpath's signature is a reminder of the heritage inherent in Canada's business and social history A Gentleman of Substance

International Books in Print ,1997 Canadian Books in Print ,2003 A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford,2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience The Publisher, 1905 Bibliography of Agriculture with Subject Index, 1993
