Eternal God, Eternal Life Philip G. Ziegler,2016-09-22 How ought Christian faith and theology understand the concept of human immortality today And what if anything might be distinctively Christian about such a concept The contributors to this volume explore how our thinking about the prospect of human immortality is decisively determined by what we receive of the limitless life of the triune God of the gospel and how our understanding of immortality is made concrete by the Christian hope in the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting Debates about how best to understand the eternal life of God are directly significant to how we can imagine the promise of eternal life While immortality is generally conceived to be a future qualification of human reality theological approaches to the question of personal immortality must investigate the difference that the hope and promise of such eternal life makes in the living of present day spiritual life as well as in our common moral and political existence To understand immortality as an eschatological gift of God requires that we take account of it as a formative factor at the foundations of the Christian life

The God Effect is Real Sujith Ittan, 2025-07-14

Something is really wrong with our reality. It appears that our minds are being manipulated. Synchronicities and the collective unconscious are clues about the mind manipulation mechanism. This mechanism is the God effect, according to the author. The God effect implies that there is an intelligent entity controlling our minds. Who is this intelligent entity manipulating our minds? A God must be responsible for the God effect. How exactly is this God manipulating our minds in this reality that is based on the principles of materialism that we know so well through our sciences? We are unable to account for the God effect within the paradigm of materialism. Are we in a reality based on idealism where consciousness is fundamental and an intelligent God exists in this context? Or are we living inside a computer simulation? What is the nature of our minds? In order to account for God, we have to question our understanding of our reality and we have to ask if we are truly in control of our minds, thoughts, and actions. This is a gist of the God mind and reality problem that the author tries to discuss in this book. In his first book, the author wondered if a simulation accounts for the God effect. In this book, he wonders if idealism with consciousness first principles and an intelligent God solves the problem.

Walking, The Way DL Newcombe, 2020-10-05

Walking The Way is the inspiring true testimony of a man who was obsessed with his own needs and desires for over 35 years. A survivor of childhood sexual, physical, psychological, and emotional abuse, he became consumed by sin, immorality, idolatry, pride, bitterness, hatred, anger, and drugs and alcohol came incredibly close to destroying his life. Then one day everything changed. In the time it took to see death coming and not even have the chance to take a breath, never mind pray for forgiveness, the man was spared. Awakened to how close he'd come to losing everything, including God, he was born again into a new life and a new role as a disciple. In His mercy, God saved this man, delivered him from self-destruction and the surety of hell, all through His amazing Grace. A testament to the power and work of God, the Holy Spirit, Walking the Way reveals the importance of faith and trust in the only true God of the Bible. Learn how forgiveness begins the healing process and how God's Word is truly the only way to renew your mind. See how effectual prayer, done in awe of the amazing power of God and His love, is sustenance for the disciple, confirming one's belief while granting the ability and strength to face life's trials with confidence. too late consider your life your thoughts your actions Remember what s at risk separation from Him forever Then ask yourself Am I born of the Spirit
