

REFERENCING YOUR POSTER OR PRESENTATION

Why?

Presentations (like slide shows or posters) are not specifically covered by most style manuals, there are no strict "rules" to follow. Instead, follow these "rules of thumb" which are expected by your audience and marker.

Check your submission guidelines as those rules are final.

Tip #1 In-text referencing

- If each point on a slide has a separate source and needs a separate citation, put the in-text reference in the point (Jones, 2022).

Otherwise, put the reference in the bottom right corner of the box or page if the design permits.

(Smith & Brown, 2022)

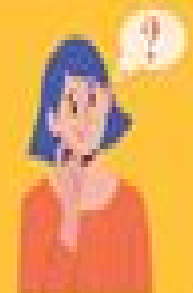

Tip #2 The reference list

- Always cite your sources - anything that illustrates your point or conveys information should be properly cited!
- Make room for your reference list when designing your poster - it should be easily accessible for your reader.
- For a Powerpoint presentation your reference list may be on the final slide.
- Follow the rules of your referencing style unless otherwise stated ie. APA, AMA, Chicago, AGLC, etc...

Tip #3 Check with your lecturer

- Where do I put my reference list?
- Do I need to reference decorative images?
- What referencing style do I use?

Ask your lecturer!
