Reflections A Poetic Approach:

Reflections Charles Lee Taylor, 2008-10-01 It has been said that when writing one should stick with the known These poems are a collection that evolved through my own experiences with life over many years You will easily see that they cover a range of emotions joy sorrow depression etc Some of the poems will show the reader a glimpse of me spiritual side which is the most important part of my being As I read them I find that they renew my faith again and again It is my hope that as you read these offerings they will awaken some memory and or emotion that has a special place in your life www charlesleetaylor com Reflections Charles Lee Taylor, 2002-04 Reflections on Poetry and the World Emily Grosholz, 2020-12-18 This collection brings together 40 years of essays about poetry and literature written by Emily Grosholz The first section includes essays about some of her favorite poets and thinkers in the United States England France and Germany The second section brings poetry into relation with ethics politics and practical deliberation and the third considers it alongside science and imagination The last section is an homage to The Hudson Review for whom she has served as an Advisory Editor for many years As a philosopher Emily Grosholz has written and thought about feminism racism and mathematics and science which has led her to admire all the more the distinct wisdom of poetry These essays show how poetry reorganized language and memory eros and experience and time and place and how and why it deepens our understanding of life Critical

Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke s empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author s professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry Echoes and Reflections SunHee Kim Gertz,2021-11-01 This study examines tales from The Metamorphoses by the Roman poet Ovid 43 BC 18 AD and from The Lais by the French poet Marie de France fl mid to late twelfth century to explore a paradox how can a vibrant complex and timeless vision be conveyed in convention informed and time bound language Marie plays against Ovid s tales to probe the dilemma thereby echoing Ovid who does the same to the canonical literary monuments of his day Both poets suggest that poetry can avoid the flattening effect of monumental canonizing not only by the creative use of literary echoes but also by shifting perspectives on the conventional which in turn can encourage readers to see reflections of many stories in any given tale Ovid and Marie suggest and encourage in this manner by presenting literary love s topoi and traditional lovers from a variety of metaliterary perspectives thereby eliciting active readerly memory as well as providing the opportunity to see the conventional afresh activity that allows even canonical texts to become living memorials

Reflections of Life: A Collection of Poems Donald W. Grant,2020-03-08 Life has a way of reflecting back to us things we want to hear and those we don t At times the reflections we get can be overwhelming My hope is that these poems based on my reflections will make you pause laugh and hopefully think Powerful Reflections Rev. Dr. Patrick Paul,2013-05-07 Powerful Reflections is a collection of poetry and thoughts that speaks to the core of who we are and the purpose of our creation which is reflected in our culture and in our responsibility to our environment It brings us face to face with the constitution of our tripartite nature and how we ought to live in reflection of our Creator This Book reflects theology humanity and geography as a picture of this unity Poetic Inclinations Dorthe Jørgensen,2021-01-29 Philosophy originates in wonder that generates sensitive thinking also called aesthetic thinking an expanded mode of thought that bridges and dissolves contradictions This book questions the disregard for such thinking in modern society including the neglect of it in most educational institutions and contemporary research It describes what it means to think in an aesthetic way when aesthetic is synonymous with sensitive not sensuous including how such thinking may foster human well being and develop our notions of history hospitality freedom and the good life The formative nature of aesthetic thinking is presented alongside the attestation of its relevance in many disciplines and a broad spectrum of society in border studies education policy and social work and in life in general Poetic Inclinations Ethics History Philosophy is related to the simultaneously published monograph Imaginative Moods Aesthetics Religion Philosophy Together they constitute a comprehensive presentation in English of the author s philosophy of experience which includes new ways of conceiving of and applying aesthetics hermeneutics and phenomenology and of integrating these disciplines as well as theology Critical Reflection on Research in Teaching and Learning ,2020-08-17 In Critical Reflection on Research in Teaching and Learning the editors bring together a collection of works that explore a wide range of concerns related to questions of researching teaching and learning in higher education and shine a light on the diversity of qualitative methods in practice This book uniquely focuses on reflections of practice where researchers expose aspects of their work that might otherwise fit neatly into traditional methodologies chapters or essays but are nonetheless instructive issues events and thoughts that deserve to be highlighted rather than buried in a footnote This collection serves to make accessible the importance of teaching and learning issues related to learners teachers and a variety of contexts in which education work happens Contributors are David Andrews Candace D Bloomquist Agnes Bosanquet Beverley Hamilton Henriette Tolstrup Holmegaard Klodiana Kolomitro Minna K rkk Outi Kyr mm l Suvi Lakkala Rod Lane Corinne Laverty Elizabeth Lee Narelle Patton Jessica Raffoul Nicola Simmons Jee Su Suh Kim West and Cherie Woolmer
