Daniel W. Doerksen

Reforming Empire Protestant Colonialism And Conscience In British Literature:

Reforming Empire Christopher Hodgkins, 2002 Shakespeare Daniel Herbert Swift Johnson Burke Blake Austen Browning Tennyson Conrad Forster and finally the anti Protestant Waugh Written in a lively and accessible style Reforming Empire will be of interest to all scholars and students of English literature Jacket Picturing Religious Experience Daniel W. Doerksen, 2011 Picturing Religious Experience studies Herbert's poetry in relation to the writings of John Calvin and maintains that Herbert owes to his religious orientation not just themes or details but an impulse to observe and depict the inner life and scriptural patterns which significantly contribute to the substance and literary excellence of The Temple

Doerksen, Christopher Hodgkins, 2004 The preoccupation of the English Church with the word of scripture during Elizabethan and Jacobian times had both powerful and subtle effects of the literature produced during and immediately after that period say scholars of English from North America and the Antipodes They examines works from the 1590s the last decade of Elizabeth's reign to 1652 just after the death of Charles I by both well known and little known authors Distributed by Associated University Presses Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern English Literature and Religion Andrew Hiscock, Helen Wilcox, 2017-07-03 This pioneering Handbook offers a comprehensive consideration of the dynamic relationship between English literature and religion in the early modern period The sixteenth and seventeenth centuries were the most turbulent times in the history of the British church and perhaps as a result produced some of the greatest devotional poetry sermons polemics and epics of literature in English The early modern interaction of rhetoric and faith is addressed in thirty nine chapters of original research divided into five sections The first analyses the changes within the church from the Reformation to the establishment of the Church of England the phenomenon of puritanism and the rise of non conformity The second section discusses ten genres in which faith was explored including poetry prophecy drama sermons satire and autobiographical writings The middle section focuses on selected individual authors among them Thomas

More Christopher Marlowe John Donne Lucy Hutchinson and John Milton Since authors never write in isolation the fourth section examines a range of communities in which writers interpreted their faith lay and religious households sectarian groups including the Quakers clusters of religious exiles Jewish and Islamic communities and those who settled in the new world Finally the fifth section considers some key topics and debates in early modern religious literature ranging from ideas of authority and the relationship of body and soul to death judgment and eternity The Handbook is framed by a succinct introduction a chronology of religious and literary landmarks a guide for new researchers in this field and a full bibliography of primary and secondary texts relating to early modern English literature and religion

A History of Food in Literature
Charlotte Boyce, Joan Fitzpatrick, 2017-05-18 When novels plays and poems refer to food they are often doing much more than we might think Recent critical thinking suggests that depictions of food in literary works can help to explain the complex relationship between the body subjectivity and social structures A History of Food in Literature provides a clear and comprehensive overview of significant episodes of food and its consumption in major canonical literary works from the medieval period to the twenty first century This volume contextualises these works with reference to pertinent historical and cultural materials such as cookery books diaries and guides to good health in order to engage with the critical debate on food and literature and how ideas of food have developed over the centuries Organised chronologically and examining certain key writers from every period including Chaucer Shakespeare Austen and Dickens this book s enlightening critical analysis makes it relevant for anyone interested in the study of food and literature

Black Africans in the British Imagination
Cassander L. Smith, 2016-12-14 As Spain and England vied for dominance of the Atlantic world during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries mounting political and religious tensions between the two empires raised a troubling specter for contemporary British writers attempting to justify early English imperial efforts Specifically these writers focused on encounters with black Africans throughout the Atlantic world attempting to use these points of contact to articulate and defend England s global ambitions In Black Africans in the British Imagination Cassander L. Smith investigates how the physical presence of black Africans both enabled and disrupted English literary responses to Spanish imperialism By examining the extent to which this population helped to shape early English narratives from political pamphlets to travelogues Smith offers new perspectives on the literary social and political impact of black Africans in the early Atlantic world With detailed analysis of the earliest English language accounts from the Atlantic world including writings by Sir Francis Drake Sir Walter Raleigh and Richard Ligon Smith approaches contact narratives from the perspective of black Africans recovering figures often relegated to the margins This interdisciplinary study explores understandings of race and cross cultural interaction and revises notions of whiteness blackness and indigeneity Smith reveals the extent to which contact with black Africans impeded English efforts to stigmatize the Spanish empire as villainous and to malign Spain s administration of its colonies In addition her study illustrates how black presences influenced the narrative choices of

European and later Euro American writers providing a more nuanced understanding of black Africans role in contemporary literary productions of the region

The Savage and Modern Self Robbie Richardson, 2018-04-13 The Savage and Modern Self examines the representations of North American Indians in novels poetry plays and material culture from eighteenth century Britain Author Robbie Richardson argues that depictions of Indians in British literature were used to critique and articulate evolving ideas about consumerism colonialism Britishness and ultimately the modern self over the course of the century Considering the ways in which British writers represented contact between Britons and Indians both at home and abroad the author shows how these sites of contact moved from a self affirmation of British authority earlier in the century to a mutual corruption to a desire to appropriate perceived traits of Indianess Looking at texts exclusively produced in Britain The Savage and Modern Self reveals that the modern finds definition through imagined scenes of cultural contact By the end of the century Richardson concludes the hybrid Indian Briton emerging in literature and visual culture exemplifies a form of modern British masculinity

Region, Religion and English Renaissance Literature David Coleman, 2016-04-08 Region Religion and English Renaissance Literature brings together leading scholars of early modern literature and culture to explicate the ways in which both regional and religious contexts inform the production circulation and interpretation of Renaissance literary texts Examining texts by a wide variety of early modern writers including Edmund Spenser Lodowick Lloyd Richard Nugent Thomas Middleton and John Webster Richard Montagu and John Milton the contributors to this volume enhance our understanding of the complex cultural contexts of early modern Anglophone writing

John Derricke's The Image of Irelande: with a Discoverie of Woodkarne Thomas Herron, Denna Iammarino, Maryclaire Moroney, 2021-04-27 John Derricke's Image of Irelande with a Discoverie of Woodkarne is a key work of English print making Irish and English history and cultural misunderstanding The work attests to the complexity of English and Irish relations colonisation military history imperial propaganda poetry art printing and the forging of identity in the early modern British Isles The original work comprises of a lengthy poetic narrative and twelve famous woodcuts of the highest quality produced in sixteenth century England They also represent some of the only contemporary views of early modern Ireland on record The sixteen interdisciplinary essays in this collection focus on the text's political and historical meaning print history iconographic elements paratexts literary and artistic influences and cultural archaeology The collection will appeal to scholars of many disciplines
