Cineaste on Film Criticism, Programming, and Preservation in the New Millennium Cynthia Lucia, Rahul Hamid, 2017-11-01 Digital technology and the Internet have revolutionized film criticism programming and preservation in deeply paradoxical ways The Internet allows almost everyone to participate in critical discourse but many print publications and salaried positions for professional film critics have been eliminated Digital technologies have broadened access to filmmaking capabilities as well as making thousands of older films available on DVD and electronically At the same time however fewer older films can be viewed in their original celluloid format and newer digitally produced films that have no material prototype are threatened by ever changing servers that render them obsolete and inaccessible Cineaste one of the oldest and most influential publications focusing on film has investigated these trends through a series of symposia with the top film critics programmers and preservationists in the United States and beyond This volume compiles several of these symposia Film Criticism in America Today 2000 International Film Criticism Today 2005 Film Criticism in the Age of the Internet 2008 Film Criticism The Next Generation 2013 The Art of Repertory Film Exhibition and Digital Age Challenges 2010 and Film Preservation in the Digital Age 2011 It also includes interviews with the late celebrated New Yorker film critic Pauline Kael and the critic John Bloom Joe Bob Briggs as well as interviews with the programmers curators Peter von Bagh and Mark Cousins and with the film preservationist George Feltenstein This authoritative collection of primary source documents will be essential reading for scholars students and film enthusiasts

Film Criticism, the Cold War, and the Blacklist Jeff Smith, 2014-03-26 Film Criticism the Cold War and the Blacklist examines the long term reception of several key American films released during the postwar period focusing on the two main critical lenses used in the interpretation of these films propaganda and allegory Produced in response to the hearings held by the House Committee on Un American Activities HUAC that resulted in the Hollywood blacklist these films ideological message and rhetorical effectiveness was often muddled by the inherent difficulties in dramatizing villains defined by their thoughts and belief systems rather than their actions Whereas anti Communist propaganda films offered explicit political exhortation allegory was the preferred vehicle for veiled or hidden political comment in many police procedurals historical films Westerns and science fiction films Jeff Smith examines the way that particular heuristics such as the mental availability of exemplars and the effects of framing have encouraged critics to match filmic elements to contemporaneous historical events persons and policies In charting the development of these particular readings Film Criticism the Cold War and the Blacklist features case studies of many canonical Cold War titles including The Red Menace On the Waterfront The Robe High Noon and Invasion of the Body Snatchers

A Grammar of Murder Karla Oeler, 2009-12-15 The dark shadows and offscreen space that force us to imagine violence we cannot see The real slaughter of animals spliced with the fictional killing of men The missing countershot from the murder victim's point of view Such images or absent images Karla Oeler contends distill how the murder scene challenges and changes film Reexamining works by such filmmakers as Renoir Hitchcock Kubrick Jarmusch and Eisenstein Oeler traces the murder scene's intricate connections to the great breakthroughs in the theory and practice of montage and the formulation of the rules and syntax of Hollywood genre She argues that murder plays such a central role in film because it mirrors on multiple levels the act of cinematic representation Death and murder at once eradicate life and call attention to its former existence just as cinema conveys both the reality and the absence of the objects it depicts But murder shares with cinema not only this interplay between presence and absence movement and stillness unlike death killing entails the deliberate reduction of a singular subject to a disposable object Like cinema it involves a crucial choice about what to cut and what to keep

Film Criticism and Digital Cultures Andrew McWhirter, 2016-08-26 The critic is dead Everyone's a critic These statements reflect some of the perceptions of film criticism in a time when an opinion can be published in seconds yet reach an audience of millions This book examines the reality of contemporary film criticism by talking to leading practitioners in the UK and North America such as Nick James Mark Cousins Jonathan Rosenbaum and Richard Porton and by covering a broad spectrum of influential publications including Sight Sound The Guardian Cineaste indieWIRE and Variety Forming a major new contribution to an emerging field of study these enquiries survey the impact of larger cultural economic and technological processes facing society media and journalism Historical perspectives on criticism from ancient times and current debates in journalism and digital media are used to unravel questions such as what is the relationship between crisis and criticism In what way does the web change the functions and habits of practitioners What influences do film industries have on the critical act And how engaged are practitioners with converged and creative film criticism such as the video essay In the face of transformative digital idealism empirical findings here redress the balance and argue the case for evolution rather than revolution taking place within film criticism Reading the Comments Joseph Michael Reagle, 2015-04-24 What we can learn about human nature from the informative manipulative confusing and amusing messages at the bottom of the web Online comment can be informative or misleading entertaining or maddening Haters and manipulators often seem to monopolize the conversation Some comments are off topic or even topic less In this book Joseph Reagle urges us to read the comments Conversations on the bottom half of the Internet he argues can tell us much about human nature and social behavior Reagle visits communities of Amazon reviewers fan fiction authors online learners scammers freethinkers and mean kids He shows how comment can inform us through reviews improve us through feedback manipulate us through fakery alienate us through hate shape us through social comparison and perplex us He finds pre Internet historical antecedents of online comment in Michelin stars professional criticism and the wisdom of crowds He discusses the techniques of online fakery distinguishing makers fakers and takers describes the emotional work of receiving and giving feedback and examines the culture of trolls and haters bullying and misogyny He considers the way comment a nonstop stream of social quantification and ranking affects our self esteem and well being And he examines how comment is puzzling short and asynchronous these messages can be slap dash confusing amusing revealing and weird shedding context in their passage through the Internet prompting readers to comment in turn WTF
