Local TV Annie Laurie Sullivan, Lauren Herold, 2025-10-15 Local Television Histories Communities and Aesthetics offers critical analyses of an expansive range of practices policies and debates in local television histories from the United States Television is typically perceived as a commercial and or national form of communication with the potential to reach millions of viewers Yet from the earliest years of television through the present communities have participated in the production of television creating media relevant to their needs and concerns This collection broadens our notion of what this medium can achieve allowing for innovative representation and community use that disrupts the political economic national and social norms of mainstream offerings Rather than a comprehensive historical survey which given the sheer number of local television productions would be impossible we've curated methodologically distinctive chapters that assess the possibilities and limitations of television's mission to serve local publics In doing so we are attentive to the idiosyncratic histories technologies and functions of local television that have emerged in different cities over the course of the 20th and 21st Century We likewise amplify the use of television by marginalized groups whose perspectives are too often sidelined or distorted in mainstream fare as a site for community formation cultural expression civic engagement and political action

The Drama of Celebrity Sharon Marcus, 2020-08-11 Why do so many people care so much about celebrities Who decides who gets to be a star What are the privileges and pleasures of fandom Do celebrities ever deserve the outsized attention they receive In this fascinating and deeply researched book Sharon Marcus challenges everything you thought you knew about our obsession with fame Icons are not merely famous for being famous the media alone cannot make or break stars fans are not simply passive dupes Instead journalists the public and celebrities themselves all compete passionately and expertly to shape the stories we tell about celebrities and fans The result a high stakes drama as endless as it is unpredictable Drawing on scrapbooks personal diaries and vintage fan mail Marcus traces celebrity culture back to its nineteenth century roots when people the world over found themselves captivated by celebrity chefs bad boy poets and actors such as the divine Sarah Bernhardt 1844 1923 as famous in her day as the Beatles in theirs Known in her youth for sleeping in a coffin hailed in maturity as a woman of genius Bernhardt became a global superstar thanks to savvy engagement with her era's most innovative media and technologies the popular press commercial photography and speedy new forms of travel Whether you love celebrity culture or hate it The Drama of Celebrity will change how you think about one of the most important phenomena of modern times

Hollywood in the Neighborhood Kathryn Fuller-Seeley, 2008-03-04 Hollywood in the Neighborhood presents a vivid new picture of how movies entered the American heartland the thousands of smaller cities towns and villages far from the East and West Coast film centers Using a broad range of research sources essays from scholars including Richard Abel Robert Allen Kathryn Fuller Seeley Terry Lindvall and Greg Waller examine in detail the social and cultural changes this new form of entertainment brought to towns from Gastonia North Carolina to Placerville California and from Norfolk Virginia to rural Ontario and beyond Emphasizing the roles of local exhibitors neighborhood audiences regional cultures and the growing national mass media their essays chart how motion pictures so quickly and successfully moved into old opera houses and glittering new picture palaces on Main Streets across America

German Wartime Memory, American Exceptionalism, and Post-Cold War Blockbuster Cinema Robert Pirro, 2025-08-29
This book excavates the diverse and mostly unnoticed political meanings made available to American and German audiences by the blockbuster films helmed by transplanted West German directors Roland Emmerich and Wolfgang Petersen Through formal film analysis broad consideration of American and German film criticism and reflection on relevant political developments of the post Cold War era the book reveals how traces of Germany's experience of dictatorship and wartime destruction find inadvertent cinematic expression in ways that helped American and German moviegoers find orientation in the changed political and cultural landscape of a newly globalized world To complement and deepen the analysis of the Hollywood output of Emmerich and Petersen the book juxtaposes the creative product of these transplanted directors to examples of a converse cinematic phenomenon considered under the label American Babelsberg which encompasses World War Two themed films shot by American directors in Germany utilizing the production facilities at Babelsberg Focus here is placed particularly on two high profile cinematic releases of the aughts Valkyrie 2008 and Inglourious Basterds 2009 The magnetic attraction to or nettlesome burden of World War Two memories on these directors of American Babelsberg and German Hollywood is explained in this book by the entwined histories of Germans and Americans the different challenges of national self definition and renewal they faced in the post Cold War world and their long standing and ongoing transatlantic discourse of political ideas and cultural ideals This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of film studies politics popular culture and contemporary history
