Antoninus,1970-06-01      Robinson Jeffers William Everson,1968 John Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 was an American poet known for his work about the central California coast Most of Jeffers poetry was written in classic narrative and epic form but today he is also known for his short verse and considered an icon of the environmental movement In the 1920s and 1930s at the height of his popularity Jeffers was famous for being a tough outdoorsman living in relative solitude and writing of the difficulty and beauty of the wild He spent most of his life in Carmel California in a granite house that he had built himself called Tor House and Hawk Tower Tor is a Celtic term describing a large outcropping of rock Before Jeffers and Una purchased the land where Tor House would be built they rented a small cottage in Carmel and enjoyed many afternoon walks and picnics at the tors near the site that would become Tor House To build the first part of Tor House a small two story cottage Jeffers hired a local builder He worked with the builder and in this short informal apprenticeship he learned the art of stonemasonry He continued adding on to Tor House throughout his life writing in the mornings and working on the house in the afternoon Many of his poems reflect the influence of stone and building on his life He later built a large four story stone tower on the site called Hawk Tower based on similar structures he had seen while traveling through Ireland Construction on Tor House continued into the late 1950s and early 1960s and was completed by his eldest son The completed residence was used as a family home until his descendants decided to turn it over to the Tor House Foundation formed by Ansel Adams for historic preservation The romantic Gothic tower was named after a hawk that appeared while Jeffers was working on the structure and which disappeared the day it was completed The tower was a gift for his wife Una who had a fascination for Irish literature and stone towers      A Study Guide for Robinson Jeffers's "Shine, Perishing Republic" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study Guide for Robinson Jeffers s Shine Perishing Republic excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs      The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman,2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan s home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage      Robinson Jeffers and a Galaxy of Writers William B. Thesing, 1995      Centennial Essays for Robinson Jeffers Robert Zaller, 1991 This work is the first volume of critical essays devoted to the poetry of Robinson Jeffers Although Jeffers was likened to some of the greatest figures in the literary world his work was controversial His preoccupation with violence and sexuality was denounced by some his alleged blasphemy by others Condemned by moralists Marxists and Cold Warriors alike Jeffers fell into obscurity until his death in 1962 Included are nine original essays by leading Jeffers scholars      Towers of Myth and Stone Deborah Fleming, 2015-09-15 In this critical study of the influence of W B Yeats 1865 1939 on the poetry and drama of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Deborah Fleming examines similarities in imagery landscape belief in eternal recurrence use of myth distrust of rationalism and dedication to tradition Although Yeats's and Jeffers's styles differed widely Towers of Myth and Stone examines how the two men shared a vision of modernity rejected contemporary values in favor of traditions some of their own making and created poetry that sought to change those values Jeffers's well known opposition to modernist poetry forced him for decades to the margins of critical appraisal where he was seen as an eccentric without aesthetic content Yet both Yeats and Jeffers formulated social and poetic philosophies that continue to find relevance in critical and cultural theory Engaging Yeats's work enabled Jeffers to develop a related though distinct sense of what themes and subject matter were best suited for poetic endeavor His connection to Yeats helps to explain the nature of Jeffers's poetry even as it helps to clarify Yeats's influence on those who followed him Moreover Fleming argues Jeffers's interest in Yeats suggests that critics misunderstand Jeffers if they take his rejection of modernism as exemplified by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound as a rejection of contemporary poetry or the process by which modern poetry came into being      Encyclopedia of the Environment in American Literature Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2014-01-10 This encyclopedia introduces readers to American poetry fiction and nonfiction with a focus on the environment broadly defined as humanity's natural surroundings from the discovery of America through the present The work includes biographical and literary entries on material from early explorers and colonists such as Columbus Bartolome de Las Casas and Thomas Harriot Native American creation myths canonical 18th and 19th century works of Jefferson Emerson Thoreau Whitman Hawthorne Twain Dickinson and others to more recent figures such as Jack London Ernest Hemingway Norman Mailer Stanley Cavell Rachel Carson Jon Krakauer and Al Gore It is meant to provide a synoptic appreciation of how the very concept of the environment has changed over the past five centuries offering both a general introduction to the topic and a valuable resource for high school and university courses focused on environmental issues      Reading the Past Across Space and Time Brenda Deen Schildgen, Ralph Hexter, 2017-03-02 Featuring leading scholars in their fields this book examines receptions of ancient and early modern literary works from around the world China Japan Ancient Maya Ancient Mediterranean Ancient India Ancient Mesopotamia that have circulated globally across time and space from East to West North to South South to West Beginning with the premise of an enduring and revered cultural past the essays go on to show how the circulation of literature through translation and other forms of reception in fact long predates modern global society the idea of national literary canons have existed just over a hundred years and emerged with the idea of national educational curricula Highlighting the relationship of culture and politics in which canons are created translated promulgated and preserved this book argues that such nationally defined curricula were challenged by critics and writers in the wake of the Second World War

A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.),1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance

The San Francisco Renaissance Michael Davidson,1991-06-28 The San Francisco Renaissance is the first review of this major American literary movement The Postmoderns Donald Allen,George F. Butterick,1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation s postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works

Now I Know Only So Far Dell H. Hymes,2003-01-01 In Now I Know Only So Far sociolinguist and ethno poetic scholar Dell Hymes examines the power and significance of Native North American literatures and how they can best be approached and appreciated Such narratives Hymes argues are ways of making sense of the world To truly comprehend the importance and durability of these narratives one must investigate the ways of thinking expressed in these texts the cultural sensibilities also deeply affected by storytellers particular experiences and mastery of form Included here are seminal overviews and reflections on the history and potential of the field of ethno poetics Native North American stories from areas ranging from the Northwest Coast to the Southwest take center stage in this book which features careful scrutiny of different realizations and tellings of the same story or related stories Such narratives are illuminated through a series of verse analyses in which patterned relations of lines throw into relief differences in emphasis shape and interpretation A final group of essays sheds light on the often misunderstood and always controversial role of editing and interpreting texts Now I Know Only So Far provides penetrating discussions and absorbing insights into stories and worlds both traditional and new

William Everson Steven Herrmann,2015-12-10 In 1991 author and Jungian psychotherapist Steven Herrmann was called by the poet shaman William Everson to collaborate on writing a book It is from that event that the subtitle of this book emerged The Shaman s Call Its aim is to instill in readers that if one follows one s calling from the shamanic archetype with the right attitude it could culminate in true cosmic awareness And it would interconnect the psyche with nature or what C G Jung called the Self Such awareness is made clear through the transfiguring power of American poet shamans who transmit what they are called by nature to convey that an experience of the Self is a life altering experience The calling can be transmitted by way of an animal power to a person through dreams transformative relationships in depth psychotherapy religious experiences art scientific endeavor or through the hearing reading or writing of shamanic poetry During the conversations with Everson emerged a vision of the way shamanism has been portrayed in American poetry from Herman Melville s Moby Dick to Walt Whitman s Leaves of Grass to Emily Dickinson s The Complete Poetry to what Everson achieved in his seminal poems October Tragedy The Encounter and Black Hills and in his literature course at the University of California Santa Cruz The conversations form a link between the 80 year old poet shaman and the 35 year old Jungian author Steven Herrmann who was just beginning to find his own wings as a poet The Expanded edition commemorates William Everson s birth on September 10 1912 Herrmann co organized three Centennial events to celebrate Everson s work in the fall of 2012 Part II contains Seven Meditations William Everson s Basic Teachings on Vocation a final conversation with Everson on vocatypes and Herrmann s Centennial essays and poems

Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men s efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author s career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States
