Rock Farmers Short Stories:

Nine Bells for a Man Peter Unwin, 2000-09 Young Robert Pachal crosses Canada by train with his brother-in-law's coffin bearing witness to a way of life that will never be seen again When he arrives in Barry's Bay he unwittingly sets in motion one of the final and most tragic events in pioneer Canada Written in Stone Peter Unwin, 2020-10-17 Paul Prescott's desire to catalogue and comprehend the aboriginal rock paintings of the Canadian Shield is told through the eyes of the woman he loves and who for her own reasons accompanies him on his travels to the deep north Her journeys with her husband and then alone returning to the north shore of Lake Superior to commend his ashes to the water draw her deeper into a history that while foreign to them both seems to offer a meaningful alternative to a world that has gone wrong Peter Unwin turns his unique talents to a story that lies at the heart of this country and to the crucial issue of our times Written in Stone maps the exhilarating and ultimately tragic consequences of one man's commitment to the land of his birth a land whose deep and unwritten past is outside the reach of his understanding Written in Stone goes beyond the surface acknowledgments of settler impacts and exists on the border of two solitudes where the known and unknown cannot be separated where mythology and reality are one and where an old and inaccessible knowledge holds the means to a possible reconciliation
