by recounting the stories of seven exemplary people of our time and the particular virtues they embodied My Path to Heaven Geoffrey Bliss,1997 Twelve lessons focus on important teachings of the Catholic faith including our relationship with God the consequences of sin and events in the life of Jesus Women Marie Anne Mayeski,1988 In Women Models of Liberation Marie Anne Mayeski presents women of spirit intelligence and accomplishment from the Christian heritage With this anthology of selected writings of well known women Mayeski recaptures the importance and relevance of these Christian heroines Called by God: Discernment and Preparation for Religious Life Rachael Marie Collins,2017-08-01 In Called by God Discernment and Preparation for Religious Life Rachael Marie Collins provides an overview of the spiritual life both its joys and its challenges and guides women as they discern whether they are called to be religious sisters or nuns In a series of letters written by the author to a trusted friend discerning whether to enter religious life Called by God explores both discernment and spirituality The key to discernment Collins argues is to prepare for religious life by entering deeply into a life of prayer and sacrifice so that one experiences and begins to understand the work of a religious before entering the convent Called by God draws heavily on the wisdom of great Catholic women such as Teresa of Avila Thérèse of Lisieux Zélie Martin Edith Stein Teresa of the Andes Elizabeth of the Trinity Miriam Teresa Demjanovich Elizabeth Leseur and Caryll Houselander among others Women discerning a vocation will benefit immensely from the discussions about the difference between religious life and marriage the nature of a vocation the supernatural superiority of religious life and spiritual motherhood in Called by God A Sheltering Tree Peter C. Wilcox,2014-06-25 When we think about the lives of the saints we can easily forget that they were people just like us with all the same struggles temptations joys and sorrows we experience in life They were not born saints they became saints And in the course of their journeys through life other people helped them become the people that God wanted them to be A Sheltering Tree offers stories of faith fidelity and friendship from both Christian and non Christian writers that explore the importance of friendship to psychological and spiritual development These stories show how friends became special graces special gifts given to us by the Lord to help us grow in holiness Contemporary stories of ordinary people illustrate fifteen lessons about friendship in our own time to help us understand the grace of friendship in our lives These stories are a source of encouragement and inspiration for each of us on our personal journeys leading us closer to each other and to the Lord who has called each of us his friend The Reed of God Caryll Houselander,2020-05-29 The Reed of God by Caryll Houselander British Catholic writer and artist has been cherished by Catholics worldwide since its first publication in 1944 This spiritual classic invites readers to encounter Mary the Mother of God not as a distant untouchable figure but as deeply human one whose openness to God made divine love visible in the world Caryll Houselander portrays Mary as a reed hollow and open through which God's song could be played With this powerful image Houselander reveals how Mary gave her whole being to God's plan and shows how we too can become instruments of divine love Years before the Second Vatican Council inspired renewed devotion to Mary Houselander offered her own profound and approachable vision of the Mother of God warm intuitive and accessible She counters the stiff idealized Madonna of the Christmas card with a portrait of Mary that is alive intimate and profoundly relevant for Christians seeking closeness with Christ Drawing from centuries of theological tradition yet enriched by her keen understanding of the human condition and the modern hunger for meaning Houselander gives flesh and spirit to the Church's affirmations about Mary and presents her as a figure designed for contemplation and imitation Through essays and poems divided into four parts Houselander reflects on the mysteries of Mary's life her fiat the finding of Jesus in the Temple her assumption and on themes of emptiness fruitfulness and the soul's longing for union with God In Mary's humanity Houselander finds the model for every believer to carry Christ into the world As Houselander writes The one thing that she did and does is the one thing that we all have to do namely to bear Christ into the world To this need the imitation of Our Lady is the answer in contemplating her we find intimacy with God the law which is the lovely yoke of the one irresistible love Mary was the reed through which Eternal Love was piped as a shepherd's song The question remains for us Are we reed pipes Is God waiting to live lyrically through us

Annunciation Sally Read, 2019-07-22 Sally Read converted from atheism to Catholicism when her daughter Flo was only four years old but it did not take long for the child to become aware that many friends and relatives did not share her mother's newfound faith This consciousness of two worlds led to a great many doubts in Flo and some rebellion Two nights before her First Communion she suddenly questioned whether she should receive the Eucharist Sensing the precarious nature of faith in an overwhelmingly secular world Read began writing down the compelling reasons for holding on to both God and Church Taking the Annunciation as her template she explored common experiences of the spiritual life as she meditated on each part of the story recorded in the Gospel of Luke Drawing on Scripture the saints and the lives of people she has known personally or professionally as a nurse Read shows how God is with us always even in suffering spiritual dryness and depression Although inspired by a mother's loving response to a daughter this book will speak to any believer engaged in the bliss and the bewilderment of a relationship with God
