A Voice for Mothers Linda Bryder,2003 The Plunket Society founded in 1907 has been heralded as New Zealand s most successful and famous voluntary organisation Run by women for women it played a vital role in the care of mothers and babies for most of the twentieth century becoming a national and international icon This comprehensive history of Plunket covers three broad themes the relationship between the voluntary sector and the State in the provision of welfare the development of paediatrics and the relationship between health providers and their clients the mothers Bryder stresses in particular infant health and welfare the political pressures applied by the government and medical profession the influence of the remarkable women who shaped the fortunes of the society and its diminishing impact in recent years She also compares New Zealand's experience with other countries like Australia and Britain and outlines the philosophy behind the organisation

Happy Abortions Erica Millar, 2017-12-15 A provocative and important book that every pro choice advocate should read Sin ad Kennedy Coalition to Repeal the 8th Amendment When it comes to abortion today's liberal climate has produced a common sense that is both pro choice and anti abortion The public are fed an unchanging version of what the abortion choice entails and how women experience it While it would prove highly unpopular to insist that all pregnant women should carry their pregnancy to term the idea that abortion could or should be a happy experience for women is virtually unspeakable In this careful and intelligent work Erica Millar shows how the emotions of abortion are constructed in sharp contrast to the emotional position occupied by motherhood the unassailable placeholder for women's happiness Through an exposition of the cultural and political forces that continue to influence the decisions women make about their pregnancies forces that are synonymous with the rhetoric of choice Millar argues for a radical reinterpretation of women's freedom

Eugenics at the Edges of Empire Diane B. Paul, John Stenhouse, Hamish G. Spencer, 2017-11-16 This volume explores the history of eugenics in four Dominions of the British Empire New Zealand Australia Canada and South Africa These self governing colonies reshaped ideas absorbed from the metropole in accord with local conditions and ideals Compared to Britain and the US Germany and Scandinavia their orientation was generally less hereditarian and more populist and agrarian It also reflected the view that these young and enterprising societies could potentially show Britain the way if they were protected from internal and external threat This volume contributes to the increasingly comparative and international literature on the history of eugenics and to several ongoing historiographic debates especially around issues of race As white settler societies questions related to racial mixing and purity were inescapable and a notable contribution of this volume is its attention to Indigenous populations both as targets and on occasion agents of eugenic ideology
