Homes and Haunts of the Most Eminent British Poets William Howitt,1847 Homes and Haunts of the Most Eminent British Poets (Complete) William Howitt,2020-09-28 The first thing which forcibly strikes our attention in tracing the Homes and Haunts of the Poets is the devastation which Time has made among them As if he would indemnify himself for the degree of exemption from his influence in their works he lays waste their homes and annihilates the traces of their haunts with an active and a relentless hand If this is startlingly apparent in the cases of those even who have been our cotemporaries how much more must it be so in the cases of those who have gone hence centuries ago We begin with the father of our truly English poetry the genial old Geoffrey Chaucer and spite of the lives which have been written of him Tyrwhitt tells us that just nothing is really known of him The whole of his account of what he considers well authenticated facts regarding him amounts to but twelve pages including notes and comments The facts themselves do not fill more than four pages Of his birth place further than that it was in London as he tells us himself in The Testament of Love fol 321 nothing is known The place of his education is by no means clear It has been said that he was educated first at Cambridge and then at Oxford He himself leaves it pretty certain that he was at Cambridge styling himself in The Court of Love Philogenet of Cambridge Clerk Leland has asserted that he was at Oxford and Wood in his Annals gives a tradition that when Wickliffe was guardian or warden of Canterbury College he had for his pupil the famous poet called Jeffrey Chaucer father of Thomas Chaucer Esq of Ewelme in Oxfordshire who following the steps of his master reflected much upon the corruptions of the clergy He is then said to have entered himself of the Inner Temple Speght states that a Mr Buckley had seen a record in the Inner Temple of Geffrey Chaucer being fined two shillings for beating a Franciscan Friar in Fleet street This Tyrwhitt says was ayouthful sally and points out the fact that Chaucer studied in the Inner Temple on leaving college and before his travels abroad which is contrary to the account of Leland who makes him after his travels reside in the Inner Temple These travels even in France resting solely on the authority of Leland Tyrwhitt disputes but of their reality there can be little doubt Woman's Missionary Friend ,1917

The Land's Wild Music Mark Tredinnick,2011-04-14 The Land s Wild Music explores the home terrains and the writing of four great American writers of place Barry Lopez Peter Matthiessen Terry Tempest Williams and James Galvin In their work and its relationship with their home places Tredinnick an Australian writer searches for answers to such questions such as whether it is possible for a writer to make an authentic witness of a place how one captures the landscape as it truly is and how one joins the place in witness so that its lyric becomes one's own and enters into one's own work He asks what it might mean to enact an ecological imagination of the world and whether it might be possible to see the work and the writer as part of the place itself The work is a meditation on the nature of landscape and its power to shape the lives and syntax of men and women It is animated by the author's encounters with Lopez Matthiessen Williams and Galvin by critical readings of their work and by the author's engagement with the landscapes that have shaped these writers and their writing the Cascades Long Island the Colorado Plateau and the high prairies of the Rocky Mountains Tredinnick seeks the spring of nature writing deep in the nature of a place itself carried in a writer's wild self inside and resonated over and over again at the desk until it is a work in which the place itself sings
