Sanders,1977 The Rodin collection left by Mrs Alma de Bretteville Spreckels to the California Palace of the Legion of Honor is the most salient and nearly the earliest example of America's admirable passion for an artist whose personality and works dominated the decades of 1880 to 1910. In an essay which follows this introduction Patricia B. Sanders has chronicled the history of Mrs. Spreckels' collecting enterprise. Her choice was remarkable. Before Rodin's death in 1917 and over the following years until the 1940s she acquired first from Rodin and later from those nearest him bronzes, plasters and marbles among them not only many of the most important Rodins but also many of the best. The Spreckels collection is second only to the Musée Rodin in Paris as a center of Rodin art and sculptures.
