Agriculture--Environmental and Consumer Protection Appropriations,1971 White Michael Klein,2015-07-30 White is set in the Nebraska sandhills a vast area of dunes covered with grass and incised by a number of rivers fed entirely by springs The subtle beauty of the sandhills defies exaggeration The principal protagonist of the story is Charles Hays usually known as Chick Moore who serves as County Attorney in Hooker County Nebraska All of the settings and place names in the novel are real Chick drives a red XK8 Jaguar convertible which he readily acknowledges as a concession to his vanity As he approaches a young woman hitchhiking along Nebraska highway 2 east of Mullen Nebraska she turns sees the car and is obviously terrified She runs away from the highway and directly in front of a coal train to her grisly death Murders occur which are rare in the sparsely populated sandhills The investigation ultimately reveals a white slave trade originating in a remote part of the sandhills The novel takes us to Tuscany Saudi Arabia and back to the hills The Foul Shot Aaron

Hart,2019-07-09 In this book you would think you have the ultimate complementation of Donald Goines Zane and the mild Terry McMillian The book is about a family struggling to balance street life love and secrets that will eventually surface The main thing is that when the truth is revealed does it instantly destroy the family or will they slowly fall apart The story begins with two brothers who are very close to each other They are like twins but are also different in their own manner as well The streets are steadily calling out to them but so are their women The women that they connect with slowly change some of their negative views on life to a more balanced and positive way However is it going to be too late for them Will the women instead become more in tuned with the world of crime and violence than become someone who brings about change Is it the beginning or the end of what they know life to be
