Masculinity and

Power in Irish Nationalism, 1884-1938 Aidan Beatty, 2016-09-23 This book is a comparative study of masculinity and white racial identity in Irish nationalism and Zionism. It analyses how both national movements sought to refute widespread anti-Irish or anti-Jewish stereotypes and create more prideful and highly gendered images of their respective nations. Drawing on English, Irish, and Hebrew language archival sources, Aidan Beatty traces how male Irish nationalists sought to remake themselves as a proudly Gaelic speaking race rooted both in their national past as well as in the spaces and agricultural soil of Ireland. On the one hand, this was an attempt to refute contemporary British colonial notions that they were somehow a racially inferior or uncomfortably hybridised people. But this is also presented in the light of the general history of European nationalism: nationalist movements across Europe often crafted romanticised images of the nation's past, and Irish nationalism was thus simultaneously European and postcolonial. It is this that makes Irish nationalism similar to Zionism, a movement that sought to create a more idealized image of the Jewish past that would disprove contemporary anti-Semitic stereotypes.

Modern Death in Irish and Latin American Literature Jacob L. Bender, 2020-09-22 This comparative literature study explores how writers from across Ireland and Latin America have both in parallel and in concert deployed symbolic representations of the dead in their various anti-colonial projects. In contrast to the ghosts and revenants that haunt English and Anglo-American letters, where they are largely either monstrous horrors or illusory frauds, the dead in these Irish/Latinx archives can serve as potential allies, repositories of historical grievances, recorders of silenced voices, and disruptors of neocolonial discourse.

Dead Men Talk Sandra Mara, 2016-09-29 The telltale fingerprint. The DNA traced from a hair. Autopsies to establish cause and time of death. Ballistics to discover what gun was used. Tyre prints. Dental records. Body fluids. Maggots. It's all the stuff of the modern police drama of CSI, of twenty-first century TV, private eyes. But forensics is a very real and vital part of solving any crime. And with modern technologies, the science of forensics has never been more relevant. Sandra Mara delves into the fascinating world of the forensics investigator. She describes how the Garda's Forensic Science Laboratory has cracked some of Ireland's most notorious crimes, and she also looks at the forensics behind some of the most notorious crimes in the UK and US, such as cases like the Yorkshire Ripper and Harold Shipman. She writes in literally forensic detail about the clues that have led to the high-profile arrests of murderers and criminals such as Gerald Barry, Sharon Collins, and the Mulhall sisters. Sandra also speaks to some of the world's top experts on forensic science to explore the next generation of technologies and techniques. From retina scanning to ballistics, toxicology to handwriting analysis, pathology to criminal profiling, the world of Dead Men Talk will draw you in and leave you breathless.

Dead Firms Miguel M. Torres, Virginia Cathro, Maria Alejandra Gonzalez-Perez, 2016-07-05 Why do firms die? This volume explores international and cross-disciplinary perspectives carrying out a forensic examination of how and why companies die in order to understand the lessons dead firms may have to offer.
