Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha, 2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death as well as the grief associated with these experiences It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions In order to help children through their pain parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects In Death Loss and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators professionals parents siblings guardians and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process These resources include books Internet sites and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process Chapters in this volume include fiction and non fiction titles about the loss of a family member a friend and a pet as well as general reference resources curricular resources and websites Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited Reviews from recognized publications are also included wherever possible Anyone interested in locating helpful resources regarding death and grieving will find much of value in this essential tool Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population Supporting Bereaved Students at School Jacqueline A. Brown, Shane R. Jimerson, 2017-04-21 Supporting Bereaved Students at School provides educational professionals with essential information to support bereaved students

Life and Loss Linda Goldman, 2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child's healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children's grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children's grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it's the book they need to work with it in constructive ways The Candy House Jennifer Egan, 2022-04-05 A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER ONE of the TOP 10 BOOKS OF THE YEAR by THE NEW YORK TIMES ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY SLATE THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER Also named one of the BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR by Vanity Fair Time NPR The Guardian Oprah Daily Self Vogue The New Yorker BBC Vulture and many more OLIVIA WILDE to direct A24's TV adaptation of THE CANDY HOUSE and A VISIT FROM THE GOON SQUAD From one of the most celebrated writers of our time comes an inventive effervescent Oprah Daily novel about the memory and quest for authenticity and human connection The Candy House opens with the staggeringly brilliant Bix Bouton whose company Mandala is so successful that he is one of those tech demi gods with whom we're all on a first name basis Bix is forty with four kids restless and desperate for a new idea when he stumbles into a conversation group mostly Columbia professors one of whom is experimenting with downloading or externalizing memory Within a decade Bix's new technology Own Your Unconscious which allows you access to every memory you've ever had and to share your memories in exchange for access to the memories of others has seduced multitudes In the world of Egan's spectacular imagination there are counters who track and exploit desires and there are eluders those who understand the price of taking a bite of the Candy House Egan introduces these characters in an astonishing array of narrative styles from omniscient to first person plural to a duet of voices an epistolary chapter and a chapter of tweets Intellectually dazzling The Candy House is also a moving testament to the tenacity and transcendence of human longing for connection family privacy and love A beautiful exploration of loss memory and history San Francisco Chronicle this is minimalist maximalism It s as if Egan compressed a big 19th century novel onto a flash drive The New York Times
