Special Education in Contemporary Society Richard M. Gargiulo, Emily C. Bouck, 2016-12-02 2015 Recipient of the Textbook Excellence Award from the Text and Academic Authors Association TAA The Sixth Edition of Richard Gargiulo's well respected Special Education in Contemporary Society: An Introduction to Exceptionality offers a comprehensive, engaging and easy to read introduction to special education. Grounded in research and updated to reflect the most current thinking and standards of the field, the book provides students with the skills and knowledge to become successful teachers. Richard Gargiulo and new co-author Emily Bouck encourage a deep awareness and understanding of the human side of special education. Their book provides students a rare look into the lives of exceptional students and their families as well as the teachers that work with exceptional persons throughout their lives. The new edition maintains the broad context and research focus for which the book is known while expanding on current trends and contemporary issues to better serve both pre-service and in-service teachers of exceptional individuals. The text is organized into two distinct parts to offer students a truly comprehensive and humane understanding of exceptionality. In Part I, readers are provided strong foundational perspective on broad topics that affect all individuals with an exceptionality. In Part II, the authors engage students with thorough examinations of individual exceptionalities and discuss historical, personal and educational details of each exceptionality as it affects a person across the lifespan.

Literacy Across the Community Laurie A. Henry, Norman A. Stahl, 2020-12-17 This volume explores and evaluates community-based literacy programs, examining how they bridge gaps in literacy development, promote dialogue and connect families, communities and schools. Highlighting the diversity of existing literacy initiatives across populations, this book brings together innovative and emerging scholarship on the relationship between P-20 schools and community-based literacy programming. This volume not only identifies trends in research and practice but it also addresses the challenges affecting these community-based programs and presents the best practices that emerge from them. Collaborating with leading scholars to provide national and international perspectives and offering a clear, bird's-eye view of the state of community literacy praxis, chapters cover programming in a multitude of settings and for a wide range of learners from early childhood to incarcerated youths and adults and including immigrants, refugees and indigenous communities. Topics include identity and empowerment, language and literacy development across the lifespan, rural and urban environments and partnership programs. The breadth of community literacy programming gathered in a single volume represents a unique array of models and topics and has relevance for researchers, scholars, graduate students, pre-service educators and community educators in literacy.

Developing Voice Through the Language Arts Kathryn Henn-Reinke, GERALYN A.
