The Edison Kinetogram ,1913 The Scary Bushfire:The Magical Scarecrows Episode One , The Scarecrow's Smile Drac Von Stoller,2025-08-31 The cornstalks rustled like dry bones in the autumn breeze a sound that usually brought comfort but now felt like a warning My grandfather a man as weathered and rooted as the ancient oak by the barn had told me to stay away from the field s edge That one he d said his voice dropping to a low rumble he s just for show but some things some things are better left alone He was talking about the scarecrow It was an old thing its burlap sack head faded to a pale gray But it was its face a single carved block of wood that held my attention A wide unnatural grin was etched into the grain so deep it looked less like a smile and more like a permanent grimace of glee The straw from its neck stuck out like a mangled beard and its button eyes were just two dark empty holes I couldn t look away from that smile It felt like it was looking back I was leaning against the fence one evening watching the last sliver of sun dip below the horizon when a shiver ran down my spine The scarecrow silhouetted against the blood orange sky seemed to have shifted A moment ago its head had been tilted slightly to the right but now it was perfectly straight facing me My heart hammered against my ribs I shook my head blaming the setting sun and my imagination The scarecrow didn t move It was just an old doll filled with straw It couldn t Later that night I was sitting on the porch with my grandfather a glass of iced tea sweating in my hand The crickets chirped and the fireflies blinked like tiny wandering stars But beneath it all I heard a different sound a soft scraping

whisper coming from the cornfield Grandpa I said my voice barely a whisper do you hear that He froze his eyes fixed on the distant field The scraping sound grew louder like a rustle of heavy cloth My grandfather s face was a mask of cold fear Don t you ever look at him boy he said his voice tight Don t you ever try to understand that smile He likes to be seen likes to be known Just turn your back The silence that followed was thick and heavy A gust of wind blew across the porch and I swore I could smell something sweet and rotten like decaying sunflowers That night I couldn t sleep The memory of my grandfather s fear was more terrifying than any ghost story Around midnight the scraping came again right outside my window I crawled to the sill and slowly pulled back the curtain The moon cast long ghoulish shadows but I could make out the figure of the scarecrow standing at the edge of the cornfield And its head was tilted Not to the side this time but down as if it were looking at the ground Or maybe at the house My blood ran cold The smile seemed to glow in the moonlight I could see the lines of the carving and for one horrifying moment they seemed to shift to deepen as if a genuine malevolent pleasure was twisting its features I bolted out of bed grabbed a flashlight and crept down the hallway I had to see it up close I had to prove to myself that my mind was playing tricks on me that this was just a trick of the light and shadow I slipped out the back door and walked toward the field the beam of my flashlight cutting a shaky path through the darkness The crickets had fallen silent The only sound was my own frantic breathing As I approached the scarecrow the air grew colder My flashlight beam found its face illuminating the sinister wooden grin I raised the light higher and that s when I saw it The burlap shirt where the straw was stuffed was moving just a little like a heartbeat I stood there frozen I could feel the smile on that wooden face feel its mocking gaze Then a low scratchy sound filled the air a whisper that seemed to come from all around me It was like a voice made of rustling cornstalks You came to see me little one it rasped I knew you would The scarecrow s head snapped up Its smile widened the lines of the carving so deep now that they looked like fresh cruel cuts in the wood A long straw stuffed arm lifted slowly creaking at the seams and pointed a frayed finger directly at me That smile on your face the voice hissed it s almost as sweet as mine I screamed dropping the flashlight as I turned and ran the beam of light rolling behind me and illuminating the cornfield in a spinning disorienting strobe I ran for the house for my grandfather I burst through the door and slammed it shut panting and shaking Grandpa I yelled Grandpa it s alive The house was silent I raced to his room threw open the door and flicked on the light The bed was neatly made The room was empty On the pillow a small hand carved wooden doll lay on its back It was a man its face a perfect polished copy of a smiling farmer The doll s eyes were two small dark and empty holes The scarecrow s smile had found a new face to wear
