Awakening African Women Ginette Curry, 2004 The book is a comparative analysis of recent films by African male and female filmmakers and literary works by female African authors from Senegal Mali the Ivory Coast Nigeria Togo and Burkina Faso The films are Finzan Cheikh Oumar Sissoko 1990 Women with Open Eyes Anne Laure Folly 1994 and Faces of Women Desire Ecare 1985 In addition the manuscript includes the study of Women are Different Flora Nwapa 1986 Double Yoke Buchi Emecheta 1983 and So Long a Letter Mariama Ba 1980 Curry analyzes the homogeneous themes such as oppression sabotage cultural alienation exploitation sexual bargaining and the changing dynamics of sexual relationships that appear through these productions She concludes that African women continue to undergo a metamorphosis This transformation is the result of a blend of traditionally African and European influences Modernist terms such as oeffeminism and oewomanism intended to capture the emerging African women as subjects and not objects of study are avoided In so doing a theoretical approach is used based on the author TM s own experiences in West Africa Then building from that premise Curry analyzes the novels and films within this context to either prove or disprove her theories Enthusiasts without past experiences in the area of African literature and African films and also students and scholars in African studies specifically in comparative literature anthropology women TM s studies sociology African history film studies and social studies will all find this book of great interest In raising the issues that West African women face this book as the title suggests aims to awaken other African women and indeed a western readership to the fast changing lives of women in Africa Georgina Holmes in African Research and Documentation No 102 2007

Orchard of Pomegranates - Pardes Rimomim Rabbi Moshe Cordovero (Ramak),2025-09-11 Pardes Rimomim The Orchard of Pomegranates is the magnum opus of Rabbi Moshe Cordovero Ramak 1522 1570 written in Safed in the mid 16th century It is the first systematic encyclopedia of Kabbalah in which ancient mystical teachings were gathered and organized into a coherent system The title of the book is symbolic the pomegranate with its hundreds of seeds represents the multitude of mysteries and meanings contained within the Torah and the cosmos Like a garden filled with diverse fruits Kabbalah is presented in the book as a holistic harmonious teaching Across 32 gates Ramak guides the reader through key areas of mystical thought from the doctrine of the One God and the ten Sefirot to the structure of spiritual worlds Angels and Demons the nature of the Soul the meaning of commandments and the mystery of future redemption This book blends philosophical clarity with poetic inspiration It opens a path not only to understanding Kabbalah but also to experiencing it as a living reality where each step of the seeker brings them closer to the Infinite There are books written in ink and there are books written in light Pardes Rimomim is not merely the treatise of a sage it is a garden into which one enters with a bare heart There branches intertwine like the paths of the Sefirot there pomegranates hang heavy with fruit each seed holding a secret each seed a part of the whole Rabbi Moshe Cordovero the great Ramak opened the gates of this garden in Safed where the air was filled with hymns and revelations and gathered all the voices of Kabbalah so that in one place they might sing a symphony of infinity Here we learn that God is One that His light shines through ten vessels that the human soul is bound to the roots of creation and that every commandment every prayer is a thread mending the fabric of the world But this garden is not only a solace it is also a challenge For the deeper we wander its paths the more we realize behind the first mystery lies a second behind the second a third and so on endlessly until we dissolve into Ein Sof Whoever enters this garden with an open heart will hear the leaves whisper eternal names and perhaps find there their own fruit sweet and radiant like a spark of the soul

Poems of Tennyson Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1903 Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French Douglas L. Boudreau,Marnie M. Sullivan,2015-12-24 Ecocriticism is a critical approach that focuses on the representation in literature of the non human elements of the natural world a method of inquiry that has been largely limited to literature written in English The aim of Ecocritical Approaches to Literature in French is twofold to introduce ecocriticism to scholars of French language literature and to open ecocriticism to the vision and voices of French literature The chapters look at work not only from France but also from North America the Caribbean and Africa The discussions include fiction poetry film and pedagogy The goal of the collection is to demonstrate not only the applicability of ecocritical inquiry to literature in French but to demonstrate the possibilities of ecocritical theory on the study of French literature and also for ecocriticism itself This collection will be a useful resource both for scholars of French language literature and also for ecocritics who may have had only limited contact with literatures in languages other than English
