Scattering Seeds Stephen Chapin Garner, 2010-01-27 In Scattering Seeds Cultivating Church Vitality Stephen Chapin Garner and Jerry Thornell share the story of their home congregation the United Church of Christ in Norwell MA This average congregation has approached congregational life in a not so average way Each congregant is seen as a minister bringing the good news of Christ to the community the church has moved away from boards and committees instead utilizing the people to form ministry teams and they have revitalized the way they approach and practice worship and education Garner and Thornell don't claim to have the secret to church growth and vitality but in sharing the story of their simple church in New England they give hope and innovative ideas to congregations in regions all over the country      The Classic

The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools Cynthia Leanne Landrum, 2019-03-01 The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools illuminates the relationship between the Dakota Sioux community and the schools and surrounding region as well as the community's long term effort to maintain its role as caretaker of the sacred citadel of its people Cynthia Leanne Landrum explores how Dakota Sioux students at Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota and at Pipestone Indian School in Minnesota generally accepted the idea that they should attend these particular boarding institutions because they saw them as a means to an end and ultimately as community schools This construct operated within the same philosophical framework in which some Eastern Woodland nations approached a non Indian education that was simultaneously tied to long term international alliances between Europeans and First Peoples beginning in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Landrum provides a new perspective from which to consider the Dakota people's overt acceptance of this non Native education system and a window into their ongoing evolutionary relationships with all of the historic overtures and tensions that began the moment alliances were first brokered between the Algonquian Confederations and the European powers
