Scenarios Of Modernist Disintegration Tryggve Andersens Prose Fiction:

Scenarios of Modernist Disintegration Timothy Schiff, 1985-11-14 This is the first comprehensive analysis of the life and work of Tryggve Andersen Stressing that Andersen was a transitional writer Schiff deftly shows him torn between defunct traditions of the recent past and a sterile hopeless future Andersen s prose fiction according to Schiff contains elegant finely crafted works of art His works are highly relevant to today s reader for they reflect some of the most compelling characteristics of the Western experience of the last century and a half despair isolation ambivalence and equivocality Throughout his commentary Schiff makes it possible to understand Andersen s works in light of a broader cultural perspective Much about Andersen which has remained shrouded in mystery comes to light here Futhermore Schiff offers many new insights into Andersen s themes and ideas substantially revising previous notions about this frequently misunderstood artist s work Scandinavica Elias Bredsdorff, 1991 A History of Norwegian Literature Harald S.

N•ss, 1993-01-01 Volume 2 Lessing and the Enlightenment Alexej Ugrinsky, 1986-08-18 This essay collection grew out of a Hofstra University conference on the life works and influence of Gotthold Ephraim Lessing the eighteenth century German playwright critic and philosopher who essentially established a new national literature in Germany during the Enlightenment The volume is divided into two main sections in which various scholars confront and reevaluate two contrasting aspects of Lessing s character the irrational poet and the rational thinker In the first section Lessing s aesthetics are discussed His link to English literature as well as his influence upon the then emerging novel are the subject of special consideration here In the second section Lessing s philosophical connection to traditions such as utopianism classical republicanism and eighteenth century humanism is discussed Also considered are Lessing s intellectual connections with Rumanian literature feminist and other ideological interpretations of his works and his relation to some of his contemporaries An introductory article stresses current and future trends in Lessing scholarhip Dostoevski and the Human Condition

After a Century Alexej Ugrinsky, Frank S. Lambasa, Valija K. Ozolins, 1986-10-21 Among nineteenth century novelists there is probably none who speaks so directly to the modern reader as Fedor Dostoevski His visions of alienation and terror have not lost their power to shake our complacency even in this present age hardened as it is to violence and social decay In this stimulating collection of essays a distinguished group of specialists in comparative literature and the social sciences explores the themes and problems with which Dostoevski struggled as both a writer and as a man and assesses their continuing relevance to the modern world Encompassing a wide range of topics and perspectives this collection enriches our knowledge and appreciation of a writer whose prophetic visions of alienation and explorations of the dark side of the human psyche continue to fascinate readers and students of the human condition The Literary Heritage of Childhood Charles Frey, John W. Griffith, 1987-08-10 In twenty eight essays Frey and Griffith members of the English faculty at the University of Washington examine many of the traditional and new children s classics The authors explore the relationship between the writer's lives and the stories they tell. Purposes and literary techniques are also discussed. Each essay provides the reader with the authors' answers to the question: What special qualities make this book a classic? Fairy and folk tales and fantasy works by Dickens, Craig, Collodi, Alcott, Twain, Kipling, Potter, Wilder, and poetry of Lear and Stevenson are included. Teachers of children's literature will find these essays useful for helping students understand the characteristics of the classic literature of childhood. The book is recommended for college and university libraries and for large and medium-sized public library collections. The Journal of Youth Services in Libraries. Seeking to restore our appreciation for the classics of children's literature, the authors of this book offer fresh and lively interpretations of twenty-eight of the most beloved works in the Western tradition. Through individual essays on representative and well-known rhymes, tales, domestic and picaresque novels, romances, talking animal stories, and semi-autobiographical narratives, the authors help us to understand why such works continue to appeal to both children and adults. Treating each work as a literary production deserving of attention in its own right, the authors explore its emotional significance and enduring themes. They discuss the writer's purposes and literary techniques and investigate the relationship of specific literary works to the lives of their creators. Bibliographic information on texts, collections, and critical literature is supplied. Guido Gezelle Hermine J. Van Nuis, 1986-02-21. In this first English language study of one of Flanders' greatest poets, Hermine J. van Nuis presents an overview of Guido Gezelle's major poetry collections and focuses upon his evolution as a poet and thinker. The author places Gezelle's poetry within its significant cultural and political contexts and analyzes his major poetry collections in terms of the circumstances of his life that shaped them. Synthesizing various critical viewpoints expressed in Netherlandic scholarship, van Nuis demonstrates how Gezelle's poetic technique paved the way for modern Dutch poetry. The volume is complete with a selected bibliography, notes, references, and a chronology of the poet's life. Russian Romantic Criticism Lauren G. Leighton, 1987. This scholarly work contains the best and most representative critical essays by leading Russian Romantic writers from the period 1815 to 1835, with the information needed to make them meaningful. The editor has provided names, dates, events, literary and critical subjects, and heretofore unknown facts about the Romantic movement in Russia and the influence of European thought on the development of Russian culture. Voices of the Storyteller Lorraine Roses, 1986-06-18. The Cast of Consciousness Beverly Taylor, Robert A. Bain, 1987-12-04. The contributors to this volume represent acknowledged experts in the field as well as a number of promising young scholars. They provide a thorough examination of how Romantic authors grappled with the problem of describing the connections between consciousness, unconsciousness, and language in their endeavor to capture this interplay in their art. As this collection bears witness, the Romantics sought to discard old ideas about language and literature and to mold new forms in their search to recover in both literature and life the sense of human possibility. The essays, while strikingly diverse in topic and approach, explore this broad issue and come to a surprisingly similar conclusion: for Romantic writers, genuine consciousness, whatever it might imply about self-awareness, not only made it possible for an individual to affiliate with something outside himself but even made such bonding necessary
