

EXAMPLE 1

BLOOD

The blood that was split because of Macbeth's ambition continuously reappears as a physical reminder that he cannot wash away his evil deeds.

Macbeth sees a bloody dagger floating in the air just before he kills the king.

EXAMPLE 2

Lady Macbeth hallucinates blood on her hands and walks around the castle yelling, "out, damn spot, out!" She attempts to wash it off, but her efforts are in vain.

GHOSTS

For Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, ghosts are reminders of the decisions they have made, decisions that haunt each of them.

Lady Macbeth states that she cannot kill King Duncan because he resembled her father as he slept.

Macbeth breaks down at the feast after seeing what he believes is Banquo's ghost.

THE SUPERNATURAL

The Three Weird Sisters are the foremost example of the supernatural throughout the play.

In Act 1, the Three Witches predict that Macbeth will become King and that even though Banquo will never be King, his bloodline will inherit the throne.

In Act 4, the Three Witches are visited by Macbeth. They give him three more prophecies, which are intentionally ambiguous.

Scenes And Motifs:

Hitchcock's Motifs Michael Walker, 2005 Among the abundant Alfred Hitchcock literature Hitchcock's Motifs has found a fresh angle Starting from recurring objects settings character types and events Michael Walker tracks some forty motifs themes and clusters across the whole of Hitchcock's oeuvre including not only all his 52 extant feature films but also representative episodes from his TV series Connections and deeper inflections that Hitchcock fans may have long sensed or suspected can now be seen for what they are an intricately spun web of cross references which gives this unique artist's work the depth consistency and resonance that justifies Hitchcock's place as probably the best known film director ever The title the first book length study of the subject can be used as a mini encyclopaedia of Hitchcock's motifs but the individual entries also give full attention to the wider social contexts hidden sources and the sometimes unconscious meanings present in the work and solidly linking it to its time and place

Making Scenes Iain Davidson, April Nowell, 2021-04-13 Dating back to at least 50 000 years ago rock art is one of the oldest forms of human symbolic expression Geographically it spans all the continents on Earth Scenes are common in some rock art and recent work suggests that there are some hints of expression that looks like some of the conventions of western scenic art In this unique volume examining the nature of scenes in rock art researchers examine what defines a scene what are the necessary elements of a scene and what can the evolutionary history tell us about storytelling sequential memory and cognitive evolution among ancient and living cultures

Middle Assyrian Seal Motifs from Tell Fekheriye (Syria) Dominik Bonatz, 2021-02-22 Despite ongoing interest in Middle Assyrian glyptic art the publications of Middle Assyrian seals and seal impressions from excavated sites in the Near East are very rare The book is the first to offer a comprehensive study on the seal corpus from an archaeological site historically located in the western territory of the Middle Assyrian state The seal impressions and few original seals which were found during the excavations in Tell Fekheriye Syria substantially add to our understanding of the iconographic repertory and the use of seals in the Middle Assyrian period The corpus dates to the reigns of the Assyrian kings Shalmaneser I and Tukulti Ninurta I in the 13th century B C It documents practices of governance and administration in the growing Middle Assyrian Empire points to activities of high ranking Assyrian officials and unfolds the pictorial reality of political and ideological intentions While finding detailed information on unpublished materials their archaeological contexts and interpretations the reader is also invited to follow a discourse on art state and society for which the Middle Assyrian seal motifs from Tell Fekheriye provide an excellent case study

A General History of Chinese Art Xifan Li, 2022-10-03 This volume explores the prehistoric beginnings of Chinese art and its development during the Xia Shang and Zhou Dynasties It analyses the conditions of the emergence of Chinese art and its transformation of form content and function throughout the Three Dynasties a historical period marked by important changes in the social and cultural Chinese landscape A General History of Chinese Art comprises six volumes with a total of nine parts spanning from the Prehistoric Era until the 3rd year of Xuanton during the Qing Dynasty 1911 The work provides a comprehensive compilation of in depth studies of the development of art throughout the subsequent reign of Chinese dynasties and explores the emergence of a wide range of artistic categories such as but not limited to music dance acrobatics singing story telling painting calligraphy sculpture architecture and crafts Unlike previous reference books A General History of Chinese Art offers a broader overview of the notion of Chinese art by asserting a more diverse and less material understanding of arts as has often been the case in Western scholarship Incubation as a Type-Scene in the Aqhatu, Kirta, and Hannah Stories Koowon Kim, 2011-05-10 Prior studies of incubation have approached it from a history of religions perspective with a view to historically reconstruct the actual practice of incubation in ancient Near East However this approach has proven unfruitful not due to the dearth of relevant data but because of the confusion with regard to the definition of the term incubation Suggesting a way out of this impasse in previous scholarship this book proposes to read the so called incubation texts from the perspective of incubation as a literary device namely as a type scene It applies Nagler's definition of a type scene to a literary analysis of two Ugaritic mythical texts the Aqhatu and Kirta stories and one biblical story the Hannah story
