Scenes From Postmodern Life:

Scenes from Postmodern Life Beatriz Sarlo, 2001 In this bracing book Beatriz Sarlo offers a remarkably clear forthright and forceful statement of what precisely cultural criticism is and might be in our age of manic consumption commercialization popularization and mass marketing New Trends in Contemporary Latin American Narrative T.

Robbins, J. González, 2014-08-20 Examining a rich new generation of Latin American writers this collection offers new perspectives on the current status of Latin American literature in the age of globalization Authors explored are from the Boom and Postboom periods including those who combine social preoccupations like drug trafficking with aesthetic ones

A History of Argentine Literature Alejandra Laera, Mónica Szurmuk, 2024-05-16 Argentine Literature continues to figure prominently in academic programs in the English speaking world and it has an increasing presence in English translation in international prizes and trade journals A History of Argentine Literature proposes a major reimagining of Argentine literature attentive to production in indigenous and migration languages and to current debates in Literary Studies Panoramic in scope and incisive in its in depth studies of authors works and theoretical problems this volume builds on available scholarship on canonical works but opens up the field to include a more diverse rendering as well as engaging with the full spectrum of textual interventions from travel writing to drama from popular gauchesca to celebrated avant guard works Working at the crossroads of disciplines languages and critical traditions this book accounts for the wealth of Argentine cultural production and maps the rich diverse and often overlooked history of Argentine literature Anything But Novel Jennie Irene

Daniels, 2023-11-08 The first in depth study in English to analyze post utopian historical novels written during and in the wake of brutal Latin American dictatorships and authoritarian regimes During neoliberal reforms in the 1980s and 1990s murder repression and exile had reduced the number of intellectuals and Leftists and many succumbed to or were coopted by market forces and ideologies The opposition to the economic violence of neoliberal projects lacked a united front and feasible alternatives to the contemporary order no longer seemed to exist In this context some Latin American literary intellectuals penned post utopian historical novels as a means to reconstruct memory of significant moments in national history Through the distortion and superimposition of distinct genres within the narratives authors of post utopian historical novels incorporated literary cultural and political traditions to expose contemporary challenges that were rooted in unresolved past conflicts In Anything but Novel Jennie Irene Daniels closely examines four post utopian novels C sar Aira s Ema la cautiva Rubem Fonseca s O Selvagem da pera Jos Miguel Varas s El correo de Bagdad and Santiago P ez s Cr nicas del Breve Reino to make their contributions more accessible and to synthesize and highlight the literary and social interventions they make Although the countries the novels focus on Argentina Brazil Chile and Ecuador differ widely in politics regime changes historical precedents geography and demographics the development of a shared subgenre among the literary elite suggests a common experience and interpretation of contemporary events across Latin America These novels complement one another extending shared themes and critiques Daniels argues the novels demonstrate that alternatives exist to neoliberalism even in times when it appears there are none Another contribution of these novels is their repositioning of the Latin American literary intellectuals who have advocated for the marginalized in their societies Their work has opened new avenues and developed previous lines of research in feminist queer and ethnic studies and for nonwhite nonmale writers

Spanish American Poetry at the End of the Twentieth Century Jill S. Kuhnheim, 2004 This is a major book for the field of contemporary Latin American poetry original in its scope depth and breadth It is a showcase of recent currents of expression in Latin America Jacobo Sefam Associate Professor of Spanish and Portuguese University of California Irvine Has poetry lost its relevance in the postmodern age unable to keep pace with other forms of cultural production such as film mass media and the Internet Quite the contrary argues Jill Kuhnheim in this pathfinding book which explores how recent Spanish American poetry participates in the fundamental cultural debates of its time Using a variety of interdisciplinary approaches Kuhnheim engages in close readings of numerous poetic works to show how contemporary Spanish American poetry struggles with the divisions between politics and aesthetics and between visual and written images grapples with issues of ethnic national sexual and urban identities and incorporates rather than rejects technological innovations and elements from the mass media Her analysis illuminates the ways in which contemporary issues such as indigenismo and Latin America's postcolonial legacy modernization immigration globalization economic shifts toward neoliberalism and informal economies urbanization and the technological revolution have been expressed in and even changed the very form of Spanish American poetry since the 1970s

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900 2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well

Confluence Narratives Antonio Luciano de Andrade Tosta, 2016-10-19 Confluence Narratives Ethnicity History and Nation Making in the Americas explores how a collection of contemporary novels calls attention to the impact of ethnicity on national identities in the Americas These historical narratives portray the cultural encounters the conflicts and alliances peaceful borrowings and violent seizures that have characterized the history of the American continents since the colonial period In the second half of the twentieth century North and South American readers have witnessed a steady output of novels that revisit moments of cultural confluence as a means of revising national histories Confluence Narratives proposes that these historical novels published in such places as Brazil Argentina Mexico the United States and Canada make up a key literary genre in the Americas The genre links the various parts of the hemisphere together through three common historical experiences colonization slavery and immigration Luciano Tosta demonstrates how numerous texts from the United States Canada Spanish America the Caribbean and Brazil fall into the genre The book focuses on four case studies from ethnic groups in the Americas Amerindians Afro descendants Jewish Americans and Japanese Americans Tosta uses the experience of the American nations as a springboard to problematize the concept of the contemporary nation an identity marked by border crossings and other experiences of deterritorialization Based on the exploration of confluence narratives Tosta argues that the contemporary nation is not as contemporary as one may think Informed by postcolonial theory and transnational and ethnic studies this book offers an important comparative study for and of inter American literature Its analysis of the representation of cultural encounters within distinctive national histories underscores the complex nature of otherness in the Americas as well as the inherently transcultural aspect of a trans continental American identity The Social Conscience of Latin American Writing Naomi Lindstrom, 2010-01-01 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Book Literature in Latin America has long been a vehicle for debates over the interpretation of social history cultural identity and artistic independence Indeed Latin American literature has gained international respect for its ability to present social criticism through works of imaginative creation In this comprehensive up to the minute survey of research and opinion by leading Latin American cultural and literary critics Naomi Lindstrom examines five concepts that are currently the focus of intense debate among Latin American writers and thinkers Writing in simple clear terms for both general and specialist readers of Latin American literature she explores the concepts of autonomy and dependency postmodernism literary intellectuals and the mass media testimonial literature and gender issues including gay and lesbian themes Excerpts in English from relevant literary works illustrate each concept while Lindstrom also traces its passage from the social sciences to literature
