Schleiermacher's Plato Julia A. Lamm, 2021-11-08 Friedrich Schleiermacher's Plato's Werke 1804/28 changed how we understand Plato His translation of Plato's dialogues remained the authoritative one in the German speaking world for two hundred years but it was his interpretation of Plato and the Platonic corpus set forth in his Introductions to the dialogues that proved so revolutionary for classicists and philosophers worldwide Schleiermacher created a Platonic question for the modern world Yet in Schleiermacher studies surprisingly little is known about Schleiermacher's deep engagement with Plato Schleiermacher's Plato is the first book length study of the topic It addresses two basic questions How did Schleiermacher understand Plato In what ways was Schleiermacher's own thought influenced by Plato Lamm argues that Schleiermacher's thought was profoundly influenced by Plato or rather by his rather distinctive understanding of Plato This is true not only of Schleiermacher's philosophy Hermeneutics Dialectics but also of his thinking about religion and Christian faith during the first decade of the nineteenth century Christmas Dialogue Speeches on Religion Schleiermacher's Plato should be of interest to classicists philosophers theologians and scholars of religion

God's Being Towards Fellowship Justin Stratis, 2019-05-30 Justin Stratis explores the meaning of the biblical phrase God is love through an examination of two quintessentially modern Protestant theologians Friedrich Schleiermacher and Karl Barth This book contains both a detailed engagement with Schleiermacher's untranslated lectures on Dialektik and their relation to his more well known work as well as a new assessment of Barth's doctrine of God which both respects his radical innovations and yet places him within the stream of traditional catholic trinitarianism After considering the complexities of theological predication and comparing several classical and contemporary approaches to the implication of love Stratis presents and ultimately commends the distinct approaches of Schleiermacher and Barth for their tendency to treat divine love as a conclusion to the doctrine of God rather than as a conceptual starting point In contrast to many contemporary approaches Stratis concludes with the suggestion that God's love is best conceived as his being toward fellowship rather than as the eminent instance of loving fellowship understood according to human experiences of love
