Schnauffer Ace Of Diamonds:

Schnauffer Peter Hinchliffe, 1999 Imprisoning the Enemy Nikolaos Theotokis, 2024-11-30 Offers a vivid examination of Axis prisoners of war during World War II detailing their experiences circumstances and the complexities of their captivity in various theatres from 1940 to 1945 Prisoners of war POWs are an important part in the history of the Second World War Nikolaos Theotokis in this vividly written book examines the subject taking a closer look at the hundreds of thousands of Axis military personnel including women mostly German who were held in POW camps POW cages prisons or forced labor camps after being captured by or surrendering to Allied forces between 1940 and 1945 in the North African European and Pacific theaters of operations Hundreds of cases of officers of the Wehrmacht and the SS as well as of the Royal Italian and the Imperial Japanese Armies have been grouped by the author in two main categories those who were taken prisoner by Allied forces and those who surrendered to them This is not a book about military might but about people many of whom were proven innocent victims of circumstance Officers who committed suicide to avoid capture and others who were charged and punished as war criminals are separately presented along with a great number of foreign volunteers who were captured by or surrendered to Allied forces during the war after joining units of the German or the Japanese Armies Members of the military and secretarial staff of Adolf Hitler who were imprisoned after the German capitulation are also highlighted in the book along with cases of high ranking officers in co belligerent Romania who were harshly punished by their country s post war communist authorities for being anti communists and for having fought against the Red Army Another category also examined by the author are the German prisoners who were handed over to Joseph Stalin by the western Allies in May 1945 as a gesture of friendship although the Soviet Union had not signed the Geneva Convention This book is a concise authoritative account of the Axis POWs being also an unrivaled source of information on the subject

Sparta's German Children Helen Roche, 2013-12-31 From the eighteenth century until 1945 German children were taught to model themselves on the young of an Ancient Greek city state Sparta From older children from teachers in the classroom and from higher authority first in Prussia then in Imperial and National Socialist Germany came images of Sparta designed to inculcate ideals of endurance discipline and of military self sacrifice Identification with Sparta could also be used to justify ideas of domination over Germany s eastern neighbours Helen Roche is the first to examine this still sensitive topic systematically and in depth She collects and analyses official and published German evocations of Sparta but also and remarkably reconstructs the experiences of German children taught to be little Spartans in the Prussian Cadet Corps and National Socialist elite schools the Napolas In treating the final and gravest period of this process the author has personally collected testimony from numerous surviving German witnesses who attended the Napolas as children in the early 1940s That testimony is presented here in a work which is likely to prove definitive not only for its treasury of new information but for its elegant and humane analysis Night Fighter Aces of the Luftwaffe 1943-45 Neil Page, Jean-Louis Roba, 2025-06-30

Features color profiles by acclaimed aviation artist Claes Sundin The week long Allied bombing campaign against Hamburg in late July 1943 was not only hugely destructive but also had a significant impact on the German night fighter arm From now on the boxes of Kammhuber s Raumnachtjagd would be the starting point from which fighters would be led into the bomber stream as early as possible a tactic dubbed Zahme Sau The night fighters had to quickly adopt new freelance procedures and also found themselves increasingly engaged in daylight operations These actions resulted in heavy losses especially of experienced aces which the Nachtjagd could ill afford and struggled to replace The winter of 1943 44 saw a series of huge raids on Berlin Although hard pressed the Nachtjagd aces were still able to score some heavy tactical victories Over a thousand RAF Viermots were shot down more than double the expected losses before the campaign was cut short New night fighter aces emerged often former transport and reconnaissance pilots and the upward firing armament of the Bf 110s and Ju 88s could cut swathes through the stream However by mid 1944 as the Allies advanced the night fighter aces were forced into new roles including ground strafing armor and troop concentrations a role for which they were clearly unsuited A small number of Me 262 jets were deployed in a new NJG 11 but exclusively committed against the rapid twin engined Mosquitos of the RAF s Light Night Striking Force Heinkel He 219s were never available in significant numbers and prowling Mosquito intruders were an ever present danger to Nachtjagd crews While the surviving night fighter aces continued their defensive actions virtually every night by March 1945 the Nachtjagd was in terminal decline Of the 1 100 night fighter pilots and crew who claimed at least one victory some 669 were lost a casualty rate of around 74 percent Fully illustrated and featuring newly translated personal accounts this is a chronological account of the Luftwaffe night fighters in the second part of the war covering major campaigns the biographies of individual aces and the details of their aircraft Knight's Cross with Diamonds Recipients Gordon Williamson,2012-06-20 On 28 September 1941 Hitler instituted a new supreme class of the Knight s Cross decoration for gallantry and leadership the Oak Leaves with Swords and Diamonds This award would be presented to only 28 soldiers sailors and airmen out of the approximately 15 million who served in the German armed forces This title describes and illustrates all 28 of those men from fighter aces and U boat commanders to the youngest generals in the Wehrmacht and field marshals in command of army groups and including one officer for whom Hitler had to invent a literally unique award that set him apart even among the Diamond bearers Mosquito Night Intruder Ace Danny Burt,2025-08-05 Bertie Rex O Bryen Hoare was born on 6 June 1912 Having been educated at Harrow and Wye Agricultural College Sammy as he was often known to friends and family entered the RAF on a short service commission in 1936 In October 1938 while piloting a Fairy Battle Bertie sustained a serious injury from a piece of loose piece of aircraft cowling This incident resulted in him being totally blinded in one eye Though he was initially grounded his determination to return to the air never diminished The outbreak of war in September 1939 saw his wish be granted when Bertie was given permission to return to operational flying duties Bertie was posted to 23 Squadron which was flying Blenheims at the time The squadron

then converted to Havocs the crews being tasked with undertaking out nighttime operations over Occupied Europe Despite his restricted night vision and depth perception Bertie went on to become one of the RAF's leading advocates in the art of what was known as intruder operations In the months and years that followed Bertie served in and then commanded a number of RAF squadrons By the time the war in Europe came to an end he was the Station Commander at RAF Little Snoring in Norfolk which at the time was home to de Havilland Mosquitos undertaking intruder operations Bertie opted to remain in the RAF after the war this time being posted to 84 Squadron However his luck finally ran out on 26 March 1947 when the Mosquito he was ferrying to Australia crashed off its northern coast Reported missing at the time Danny Burt reveals the full circumstances of this tragic incident This is the biography of one of the RAF's greatest characters of the Second World War With his epic over sized mustache Bertie Hoare was a pilot who with the end of the fighting had risen to the rank of Group Captain been awarded the Distinguished Service Order and Bar the Distinguished Flying Cross and Bar and been Mentioned in Despatches Bertie ended the war having flown over 100 combat sorties

Aces of the Luftwaffe Peter Jacobs, 2014-09-03 A history of Nazi Germany's air force along with details of some of its most successful pilots World War II's air battles were fought ferociously and with extraordinary skill and courage on both fronts The fighter pilots of Luftwaffe the jagdflieger in fact outscored their Allied counterparts by some margin and were some of the highest scoring fighter pilots of all time More than a hundred recorded a century of aerial successes with two going on to surpass an astonishing 300 victories In the end the vast effort required by the Luftwaffe to maintain the air war on so many fronts proved too much Few jagdflieger survived the last days of the Reich But their ability was beyond question and the names of some will live on in the annals of air warfare with their extraordinary achievements never to be surpassed In Aces of the Luftwaffe Peter Jacobs examines the many campaigns fought by the Luftwaffe from its fledgling days during the Spanish Civil War to its last days defending the Reich and recounts the exploits of Erich Hartmann the highest scoring fighter pilot of all time Hans Joachim Marseille the Star of Africa Werner Molders the first recipient of the Diamonds and Adolf Galland perhaps the most famous of all

Day Fighter Aces of the Luftwaffe Jeremy Dixon, 2023-12-30 The second of two comprehensive directories of all the Luftwaffe's single seater fighter pilots who were awarded the Knight's Cross during the Second World War The German fighter pilots of the Second World War are among the undoubted heroes of the conflict their reputation for flying skill single minded determination and solitary courage hasn't diminished or been clouded by controversy over the years Their daring and commitment often displayed when towards the end of the war they were fighting against the odds matches that of any of the other air forces they fought against This detailed highly illustrated reference book which covers the exploits of the most famous and successful individuals among them shows just how effective and undaunted they were All the Luftwaffe day fighter pilots who flew single seater aircraft and won the Knight's Cross during the war are featured The entries give information about their early lives and pre war careers and record how many aircraft they shot down the type of
