Jewish exegesis Situating midrash within the broader contexts of hermeneutics rabbinics and postmodern studies the volume as a whole presents the reader with a comprehensive view of the kinds of questions and issues scholars in the field are engaging

The Work and The Reader in Literary Studies Paul Eggert, 2019-08-29 Reflects on and re imagines the role of the scholarly edition and its reader in the twenty first century

Palimpsest George Bornstein, Ralph G. Williams, 1993 Distinguished scholars discuss editorial theory and how it is applied across the humanities

Electronic Text Kathryn Sutherland, 1997 The electronic presentation of text has revolutionized the understanding and use of literary evidence Formerly readers and editors were obliged to choose one edition of a text in book form to work with and to treat other versions as ancillary Now electronic editions of a text can incorporate all the various versions and revisions This allows unconstrained access to a much greater range of information This collection considers the role of computerized technology in contributing to the interpretation and editing of texts from both practical and theoretical perspectives The contributors investigate the ways in which the treatment of texts and the idea of a text are affected by current and prospective advances in electronic production and reproduction
