Kendal,Jeremy Kendal,2025-07-16 This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the interdisciplinary field of Cultural Evolution which has in recent years matured into an increasingly diverse and wide reaching but intellectually coherent research programme The book showcases the disciplinary spectrum of research into Cultural Evolution from primatology and medieval literature to gene culture co

evolution computer science anthropology archaeology and experimental psychology The handbook consists of review essays contributed by leading experts in their areas structured into ten sections covering key approaches and debates major themes and real world applications Taken together the essays offer an exceptionally broad and forward looking perspective on the field for researchers across the cognitive and evolutionary social sciences including those working in fields adjacent to Cultural Evolution such as Behavioural Ecology Evolutionary Psychology and Digital Humanities The handbook also provides a unique educational resource for students and teachers seeking to integrate Cultural Evolution into undergraduate and postgraduate curricula as well as highlighting some of the potential applications of Cultural Evolution in fields such as education public health and environmental policy

Property and Equality Thomas Widlok, Wolde Gossa

Tadesse, 2006-01-01 The ethnography of egalitarian social systems was first met with sheer disbelief Today it is still hotly debated in a number of fields and has gained sophistication as well as momentum This collection of essays on property and equality acknowledges this diversification by presenting research results in two complementary volumes They bring together a wide range of authoritative researchers most of whom have worked with hunter gatherer groups These two volumes cover existing ethnographic and theoretical ground while maintaining a clear focus on the relation between property and equality The book consists of the most recent work of prominent members of the original group of researchers in hunter gatherer studies among them James Woodburn and Richard Lee and very recent ethnography on hunter gatherers and other egalitarian systems

New York Magazine, 1989-03-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
