Sculptural Ceramics:

Sculptural Ceramics Ian Gregory, 1999 In this book Ian Gregory first sketches the history of man's clay figure work. He then provides essential technical information for the would-be sculptural ceramacist. The author uses examples of work from all over the world to show just what a diverse and creative area of ceramics this is. Sculptural Ceramics has been designed as an introduction and practical hand book to the subject. It is also an inspiration for other potters and a source of delight for all those interested in contemporary ceramics. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc. Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery. This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture. Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually. Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft, the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay.

Sculptural Ceramics Ian Gregory, 1999 Clays Glazes Slips Construction methods and decoration Techniques

Making Ceramic Sculpture Raúl Acero, 2012 This book takes the reader through the process of learning how to make hand built ceramic sculpture with simple yet evocative flexible techniques. Intended primarily for beginners, the text also addresses issues of ceramic form, process and ideation that will be valuable to intermediate ceramic artists as well. An extensive full color gallery section showcases some of the best contemporary ceramic sculpture from 104 artists worldwide.

Mastering Sculpture: The Figure in Clay Cristina Córdova, 2022-05-24 Explore the human form in depth from concept sketches and armatures to detailed instructions for constructing legs, torso, arms, hands, and head from clay. In Mastering Sculpture: The Figure in Clay, renowned sculptor and instructor Cristina Córdova teaches everything you need to know to replicate the full human figure using clay. Start by developing meaningful sketches and reference points. Then learn how to make and use an armature to create hollow forms that are safe to fire in a kiln. Using patterns and slabs, you can move on to develop a full human form, head to toe. Work along with the author to create a form about two feet tall, or choose your own size; the patterns and instructions can work in a variety of scales. Photographic demonstrations and diagrams cover the construction and articulation of feet and legs, the hip area and upper torso, arms, hands, neck, and head. Cristina includes supplementary tips and insights throughout to support the sculpting process and enhance naturalism. You'll also find a brief section on general anatomical concepts and modeling strategies to facilitate accuracy and expression as all the components come together. Whether you are a clay artist with limited experience in figurative sculpture or a figurative sculptor outside the world of ceramics looking for a straightforward fabrication strategy to create permanent compositions from clay, Mastering Sculpture: The Figure in Clay will expertly guide

Listening to Clay Alice North, Halsey North, Louise Allison Cort, 2022-06-14 The first book to tell the stories of some of the most revered living Japanese ceramists of the century tracing the evolution of modern and contemporary craft and art in Japan and the artists considerable influence which far transcends national borders Listening to Clay Conversations with Contemporary Japanese Ceramic Artists is the first book to present conversations with some of the most important living Japanese ceramic artists Tracing the evolution of modern and contemporary craft and art in Japan this groundbreaking volume highlights sixteen individuals whose unparalleled skill and creative brilliance have lent them an influence that far transcends national borders Despite forging illustrious careers and earning international recognition for their work these sixteen artists have been little known in terms of their personal stories Ranging in age from sixty three to ninety three they embody the diverse experiences of several generations who have been active and successful from the late 1940s to the present day a period of massive change Now sharing their stories for the first time in Listening to Clay they not only describe their distinctive processes inspirations and relationships with clay but together trace a seismic cultural shift through a field in which centuries old but exclusionary potting traditions opened to new practitioners and kinds of practices Listening to Clay includes conversations with artists born into pottery making families as well as with some of the first women admitted to the ceramics department of Tokyo University of the Arts telling a larger story about ingenuity and trailblazing that has shaped contemporary art in Japan and around the world Each artist is represented by an entry including a brief introduction a portrait selected examples of their work and an intimate interview conducted by the authors over several in person visits from 2004 to 2019 At the core of each story is the artist s personal relationship to clay often described as a collaboration with the material rather than an imposing of intention The oldest artist interviewed Hayashi Yasuo enlisted in the army during WWII at age fifteen and trained as a kamikaze pilot He was born into a family that had fired ceramics in cooperative kilns for generations but he rejected traditional modes and went on to be the first artist in Japan to make truly abstract ceramic sculpture In the late 1960s another artist Mishima Kimiyo developed a technique of silkscreening on clay and began making ceramic newspapers to comment on the proliferation of the media She became fascinated with trash recreating it out of clay and worked in relative obscurity for decades until she had a major exhibition in Tokyo in 2015 Featuring a preface by curator writer and historian Glenn Adamson and a foreword by Monika Bincsik the Associate Curator for Japanese Decorative Arts at The Metropolitan Museum of Art Listening to Clay has been a project more than fifteen years in the making for authors Alice and Halsey North respected and knowledgeable collectors and patrons of contemporary Japanese ceramics and Louise Allison Cort Curator Emerita of Ceramics National Museum of Asian Art Smithsonian Institution The book also includes conversations with five important dealers of contemporary Japanese ceramics who have played and are playing a critical role in introducing the work of these artists to the world several detailed appendices and a glossary of terms relevant people and relationships Listening to Clay is a long overdue and insightful book that for the first time spotlights some of Japan s most celebrated contemporary ceramic artists through personal idiosyncratic accounts of their day to day lives giving special access to their creative process and artistic development

Methodology, Ideology and Pedagogy of African Art Moyo Okediji, 2024-02-14 This edited volume including contributions from scholars with different areas of specialization investigates a broad range of methodologies ideologies and pedagogies focusing on the study of the art of Africa using theoretical reflections and applications from primitivism to metamodernism Chapters break the externally imposed boundaries of Africa related works beyond the conventional fragments of traditional contemporary and diaspora The contributions are significantly broad in their methodologies ideologies and pedagogical coverage yet they all address various aspects of African artistic creativity demonstrating the possibilities for analytical experiments that art history presents to scholars of the discipline today The w character of each approach is unique nevertheless each is useful toward a fuller understanding of African art studies as an independent aspect of art historical research that is a branch or bud of the larger family of art history The volume respects highlights and celebrates the distinctiveness of each methodical approach recognizing its contribution to the overall character or w of African art studies The book will be of interest to students in undergraduate or graduate intermediate or advanced courses as well as scholars in art history and African studies

Martin Bodilsen Kaldahl. Probing the Floor, Sniffing the Air Jeanne Betak,2024-09-20 This monograph presents Kaldahl s experimental work in clay sculpture His compositions and materializations are the result of intuitive improvisations and a direct yet subtle response to material and spatial qualities Kaldahl has worked with a myriad of spatial themes and ornaments that frequently reappear in his formal vocabulary and which arise out of a methodical gradual and experimental process This catalogue includes an introductory essay by Brooklyn based curator writer and historian Glenn Adamson Copenhagen based writer and curator Jorunn Veiteberg draws connections to contemporary and historical developments with ceramic practices in fine art and craft Further Kaldahl s own voice is present in the publication in a number of highly engaging statements MARTIN BODILSEN KALDAHL 1954 is a ceramic artist based in Copenhagen and has been exhibiting and curating for thirty five years in Los Angeles New York Amsterdam Saint Petersburg Milan Munich Brussels Paris Berlin London Oslo and Copenhagen Japanese Studio Crafts

Rupert Faulkner,1995 A beautiful presentation of outstanding works of craft being created in Japan today Sculpture and Touch Peter Dent,2017-07-05 Since the Renaissance at least the medium of sculpture has been associated explicitly with the sense of touch Sculptors philosophers and art historians have all linked the two often in strikingly different ways In spite of this long running interest in touch and tactility it is vision and visuality which have tended to dominate art historical research in recent decades This book introduces a new impetus to the discussion of the relationship between touch and sculpture by setting up a dialogue between art historians and individuals with fresh insights who are working in disciplines beyond art history The collection brings together a rich and diverse set of approaches with essays tackling subjects from prehistoric figurines to the work of contemporary artists from pre modern ideas about the physiology of touch to tactile interaction in the museum environment and from the phenomenology of touch in recent philosophy to the experimental findings of scientific study It is the first volume on this subject to take such a broad approach and as such seeks to set the agenda for future research and collaboration in this area Naked Clay Jane Perryman,2008-10-28 A well illustrated guide to finishing ceramic work without using a glaze
