Catalogo della mostra (Roma, 22 giugno-30 settembre 2006). Ediz. italiana e inglese Marc Quinn,Achille Bonito Oliva,Danilo Eccher,2006 Text by Danilo Eccher Marc Quinn Jason Shulman Tate Modern Artists Simon Morrissey,2005 Richard Wilson was born in London in 1953 Descended on one side from a line of builders and on the other of artists his work often comes closer to engineering or even architecture than it does to traditional sculpture Typically he transforms the viewer s environment into something unsettling and strange by the interventions he makes whether in the internal space of a gallery the structure of a building or in one of the ships with which he has a particular affinity Perhaps his best known work is 20 50 currently on show at and probably the most popular exhibit in the Saatchi Gallery in London For 20 50 Wilson flooded a gallery space with oil which has a highly reflective surface Into the oil is built a kind of narrow pier or promenade down which one person at a time can walk the oil perilously close to their body So reflective is the oil that the room induces a strong sense of disorientation Further along the River Thames next to the Millennium Dome is another Wilson piece that provides an unexpected sight moving freely through it is both a startling sculptural object in its own right and a comment on the vanished shipping industry that was once a mainstay of the river community In Los Angeles Wilson was inspired by one of the most ubiquitous symbols of Californian life the swimming pool suspending a fibreglass pool shell from a sixty foot long pipe in MOCA's subterranean gallery Deep End In addition to and often in conjunction with these large scale projects Wilson makes films and sculpture takes photographs and stages performance events and has been a formative influence on a generation of British artists This lavishly illustrated career survey includes a new interview with Wilson and examines six key works in depth

The Sculpture of William

Turnbull Amanda Anne Davidson, 2005 This publication takes the reader through William Turnbull's artistic journey and explores his influences as well as his own constant sense of direction A fascinating narrative is counterbalanced by the first complete catalogue of the artist's entire sculptural output 1948 to 2003

Lynn Chadwick, Sculptor Dennis Farr, Lynn Chadwick, Eva Chadwick, 1997 This is the first comprehensive survey of the career of Lynn Chadwick 1914-2003 one of the greatest sculptors of the British postwar generation ranked alongside Henry Moore and Barbara Hepworth This book is a fitting tribute to Chadwick's brilliant career which spanned half a century Chadwick's work drew upon the natural world and his sculptures were largely based on the human figure or animal forms Though he insisted on the primacy of formal and technical concerns his animals explore states of aggression and vulnerability while the later archetypal figures examine aspects of human movement interaction and sexuality Offering a detailed critical explanation of Chadwick's career the book also incorporates excerpts from interviews and discussions with the artist at his home in Gloucestershire shortly before his death
