Working Farmer ,1856 North Carolina's Outer Banks Karen Bachman, Into the Sound Country Bland

Simpson,2017-12-01 Into the Sound Country is a story of rediscovery of two North Carolinians returning to seek their roots in the state's eastern provinces It is an affectionate impressionistic and personal portrait of the coastal plain by two natives of the region writer Bland Simpson and photographer Ann Cary Simpson Here Bland Simpson tours his old waterfront haunts in Elizabeth City explores scuppernong vineyards from Hertford to Southport tramps through Pasquotank swamps and Croatan pine savannas and visits Roanoke River oyster bars and Core Banks fishing shanties Ann Simpson's original photographs capture both the broad vistas of the sounds and rivers and the quieter corners of mossy creeks and country churchyards Her selection of archival illustrations ranges from the informative to the humorous from a turpentine scraper at work in the 1850s to a pair of little girls playing with a horseshoe crab on a Beaufort porch at the turn of the century A memorable journey into eastern Carolina's richly varied natural world Into the Sound Country is for anyone who would spend a while in one of America's most intriguing and underexplored areas A History of Wine in America from the Beginnings to

Prohibition Thomas Pinney,1989-01-01 Tells the story of vitaculture and winemaking in America and discusses the individuals organizations and institutions associated with the enterprise The North Carolina Historical Review ,1989 De

Bow's Review and Industrial Resources, Statistics, Etc ,1850

A History of Wine in America, Volume 1 Thomas

Pinney,2007-09-17 The Vikings called North America Vinland the land of wine Giovanni de Verrazzano the Italian explorer who first described the grapes of the New World was sure that they would yield excellent wines And when the English settlers found grapes growing so thickly that they covered the ground down to the very seashore they concluded that in all the world the like abundance is not to be found Thus from the very beginning the promise of America was in part the alluring promise of wine How that promise was repeatedly baffled how its realization was gradually begun and how at last it has been triumphantly fulfilled is the story told in this book It is a story that touches on nearly every section of the United States and includes the whole range of American society from the founders to the latest immigrants Germans in Pennsylvania Swiss in Georgia Minorcans in Florida Italians in Arkansas French in Kansas Chinese in California all contributed to the domestication of Bacchus in the New World So too did innumerable individuals institutions and organizations Prominent politicians obscure farmers eager amateurs sober scientists these and all the other kinds and conditions of American men and women figure in the story The history of wine in America is in many ways the history of American origins and of American enterprise in microcosm While much of that history has been lost to sight especially after Prohibition the recovery of the record has been the goal of many investigators over the years and the results are here brought together for the first time In print in its entirety for the first time A History of Wine in America is the most comprehensive account of winemaking in the United States from the Norse discovery of native grapes in 1001 A D through Prohibition and up to the present expansion of winemaking in every state

The Winemaker's Hand Natalie Berkowitz, 2014-06-03 In these fascinating interviews winemakers from the United States and abroad clarify the complex process of converting grapes into wine with more than forty vintners candidly discussing how a combination of talent passion and experience shape the outcome of their individual wines Each winemaker details their personal approach to the various steps required to convert grapes into wine Natalie Berkowitz speaks to winemakers from different backgrounds who work in diverse wine producing regions including Chile England France Germany Greece Israel Italy Portugal Slovenia Spain and the United States They talk about familiar and unfamiliar grape varieties their struggles with local terroirs and the vagaries of Mother Nature Some represent small family wineries with limited production while others work for corporations producing hundreds of thousands of bottles Each individual offers rare insight into how new technologies are revolutionizing historic winemaking practices The interviews are supplemented with personal recipes and maps of winemaking regions An aroma wheel captures the vast array of wine's complex flavors and aromas
