Sealskin Trousers And Other Stories:

Sealskin Trousers Eric Linklater, 1991-04-01 Sealskin Trousers and Other Stories Jon Wynne-Tyson, 1994 This selection of short stories has a unifying theme our role in the natural scheme of things and in particular our attitude towards the other creatures with whom we share this planet The Goose Girl and Other Stories Eric Linklater, 2011-09-28 Eric Linklater was one of the most respected and prolific Scottish writers of this century yet more than twenty five years have passed since his last collection of short stories was published This selection covers Linklater's entire writing life The settings are as various as the places where he lived Orkney India California Edinburgh and the Highlands the events that take place both fantastic and sensual in their depiction A strong seam of Scottish history and culture runs through much of Linklater's work The short stories include classics of the form such as The Goose Girl and Kind Kitty and wild variations on fairy stories medieval myths bawdy folktales Viking sagas and 1920s crime reports They derive from the magic of the world love beauty ambition drink and language Their exuberant invention and comic verve provide glorious evidence for George Mackay Brown's assertion that Linklater is one of Scotland's best story tellers ever House of Mourning and Other Stories Desmond Hogan, 2013-06-18 There is no doubt that Desmond Hogan is one of most remarkable literary talents to have come out of Ireland in the past half century and perhaps the best introduction to his work is through his magnificent short stories widely anthologized and praised throughout the world Focusing as always on the downtrodden and the eccentric the misplaced and the dispossessed Hogan's stories merge past with present landscape with mindscape distinctly Irish and burdened by history while exhilaratingly and wholly universal and modern The Cambridge History of the English Short Story Dominic Head, 2016-11-14 The Cambridge History of the English Short Story is the first comprehensive volume to capture the literary history of the English short story Charting the origins and generic evolution of the English short story to the present day and written by international experts in the field this book covers numerous transnational and historical connections between writers modes and forms of transmission Suitable for English literature students and scholars of the English short story generally it will become a standard work of reference in its field The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication
