Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this The Rabbi of Lud Stanley Elkin, 2001 Surrounded by cemeteries in the flatlands of New Jersey the small town of Lud is sustained by the business of death In fact with no synagogue and no congregation Rabbi Jerry Goldkorn has only one true responsibility to preside over burial services for Jews who pass away in the surrounding cities But after the Arctic misadventures that led him to Lud he wouldn t want to live or die anywhere else As the only living child in Lud his daughter Connie has a different opinion of this grisly city and she will do anything to get away from it or at least liven it up a bit Things get lively indeed when Connie testifies to meeting the Virgin Mary for a late night romp through the local graveyards George Mills Stanley Elkin, 2003 Considered by many to be Elkin s magnum opus George Mills is an ambitious digressive and endlessly entertaining account of the 1 000 year history of the George Millses From toiling as a stable boy during the crusades to working as a furniture mover there has always been a George Mills whose lot in life is to serve important personages But the latest in the line of true blue collar workers may also be the last as he obsesses about his family s history and decides to break the cycle of doomed George Millses An inventive unique family saga George Mills is Elkin at his most manic most comic and most poignant Van Gogh's Room at Arles Stanley Elkin, 2002 The three novellas collected in Van Gogh s Room at Arles demonstrate once again Stanley Elkin s mastery of the English language with exuberant rants on almost every page unexpected plot twists and jokes that leave readers torn between laughter and tears Her Sense of Timing relates a destructive day in the life of a wheelchair bound professor who is abandoned by his wife at the worst possible time leaving him to preside helplessly over a party for his students that careens out of control The second story in this collection tells of an unsuspecting commoner catapulted into royalty when she catches the wandering eye of Prince Larry of Wales And in the title story a community college professor searches for his scholarly identity in a land of academic giants while staying in Van Gogh s famous room at Arles and avoiding run ins with the Club of the Portraits of the Descendants of the People Painted by Vincent Van Gogh Boswell Stanley Elkin, 1999 Boswell is

Stanley Elkin's first and funniest novel the comic odyssey of a twentieth century groupie who collects celebrities as his insurance policy against death James Boswell strong man professional wrestler his most heroic match is with the Angel of Death is a con man gate crasher and moocher of epic talent He is also a man on the make for all the great men of his time his logic being that if you can't be a lion know a pride of them Can he cheat his way out of morality The Concise Oxford Companion to American Literature James D. Hart, Wendy Martin, Danielle Hinrichs, 2021-01-21 For nearly half a century James D Hart's Oxford Companion to American Literature has offered a matchless guided tour through American literary culture both past and present with brief biographies of important authors descriptions of important literary movements and a wealth of information on other aspects of American literary life and history from the Colonial period to the present day In this second edition of the Concise version Wendy Martin and Danielle Hinrichs bring the work up to date to more fully reflect the diversity of the subject Their priorities have been foremost to fully represent the impact of writers of color and women writers on the field of American literature and to increase the usefulness of the work to students of literary theory To this end over 230 new entries have been added including many that cover women authors Native American African American Asian American Latino and other contemporary ethnic literatures LGBT trans and queer studies and recent literary movements and evolving areas of contemporary relevance such as eco criticism disability studies whiteness studies male masculinity studies and diaspora studies American Jewish Year Book, 1996. ,1995 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current
