Does This Baby Make Me Look Straight? Dan Bucatinsky,2012-06-05 From actor writer producer Dan Bucatinsky executive producer of NBC s Who Do You Think You Are a collection of snort milk through your nose funny stories of parenthood that will obliterate the boundaries of gender and sexual orientation and sweep readers up on a journey into fatherhood warts and all In 2005 Dan Bucatinsky and his partner Don Roos found themselves in an LA delivery room decked out in disposable scrubs from shower cap to booties to welcome their adopted baby girl launching their frantic yet memorable adventures into fatherhood Two and a half years later the same birth mother a heroically generous pack a day teen with a passion for Bridezilla marathons and Mountain Dew delivered a son into the couple s arms In Does This Baby Make Me Look Straight Bucatinsky moves deftly from sidesplitting stories about where kids put their fingers to the realization that his athletic son might just grow up to be straight and finally to a reflection on losing his own father just as he s becoming one Bucatinsky s soul baring and honest stories tap into that all encompassing and very human hunger to be a parent and the life changing and often ridiculous road to getting there Jet ,2006-01-09 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Performing Exile, Performing Self Y. Meerzon,2012-04-05 This book examines the life and art of those contemporary artists who by force or by choice find themselves on other shores It argues that the exilic challenge enables the migr artist to re establish new artistic devices new laws and a new language of communication in both his everyday life and his artistic work After The Celebration Ken Gelder,Paul Salzman,2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia s bicentenary to the end of the Howard government In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts cultural social political historical national and transnational From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become From France With Love Mary Harrod,2015-05-21 Love stories have always been at the heart of French cinema but romantic comedies have until recently been absent from it In 2001 the global success of Amelie catalysed a major development in the Western world s second largest film industry the appropriation of the Hollywood romantic comedy genre or Rom Com a l Americaine In From France with Love Mary Harrod explores this contemporary phenomenon examining both local hits and films with international status Using socio cultural data box office figures and analysis of critical reception she reveals the ways in which these films mirror shifting attitudes towards gender roles within French society as well as the increasingly important interrelation between French national cinema and transnational filmmaking paradigms Finding List of Books Except Fiction Denver Public Library,1903 Yeats and Revisionism Daniel O'Hara,2022-11-08 The books collects Daniel T O Hara s half century of essays and review essays on Yeats and his major poetry an drama and how leading critics and theorists have sought to revise their reception for their periods of time and indeed for the future Its aim is to trace a critical history of the last fifty years even as it opens the prospects for the future of critical reading of Yeats and modern poetry The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1906 New York Magazine ,1978-11-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Love Songs Ted Gioia,2015-01-14 The love song is timeless From its beginnings it has been shaped by bohemians and renegades slaves and oppressed minorities prostitutes immigrants and other excluded groups But what do we really know about the origins of these intimate expressions of the heart And how have our changing perceptions about topics such as sexuality and gender roles changed our attitudes towards these songs In Love Songs The Hidden History Ted Gioia uncovers the unexplored story of the love song for the first time Drawing on two decades of research Gioia presents the full range of love songs from the fertility rites of ancient cultures to the sexualized YouTube videos of the present day The book traces the battles over each new insurgency in the music of love whether spurred by wandering scholars of medieval days or by four lads from Liverpool in more recent times In these pages Gioia reveals that the tenderest music has in different eras driven many of the most heated cultural conflicts and how the humble love song has played a key role in expanding the sphere of individualism and personal autonomy in societies around the world Gioia forefronts the conflicts controversies and the battles over censorship and suppression spurred by such music revealing the outsiders and marginalized groups that have played a decisive role in shaping our songs of romance and courtship and the ways their innovations have led to reprisals and strife And he describes the surprising paths by which the love song has triumphed over these obstacles and emerged as the dominant form of musical expression in modern society

Storying Relationships Richard Phillips, Claire Chambers, Nafhesa Ali, Indrani Karmakar, Kristina Diprose, 2021-03-25 Storying Relationships explores the sexual lives of young British Muslims in their own words and through their own stories It finds engaging and surprising stories in a variety of settings when young people are chatting with their friends conversing more formally within families and communities scribbling in their diaries and writing blogs poems and books to share or publish These stories challenge stereotypes about Muslims who are frequently portrayed as unhappy in love and sexually different The young people who emerge in this book contradicting racist and Islamophobic stereotypes are assertive and creative finding and making their own ways in matters of the body and the heart Their stories about single life meeting and dating pressure and expectations sex love marriage and dreams are at once specific to the young British Muslims who tell them and resonant reflections of human experience

Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli, 2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love s paradoxical nature If love is triggered by beauty beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty

A Farewell To Arms Ernest Hemingway, 2025-01-17

A Farewell to Arms is a novel by Ernest Hemingway set during World War I It tells the story of Frederic Henry an American ambulance driver in the Italian army The narrative explores themes of love war and the struggle for meaning in a chaotic world Frederic Henry falls in love with Catherine Barkley a British nurse Their relationship develops against the backdrop of the war The novel begins with Frederic s experiences on the front lines He witnesses the horrors of battle and the impact of war on soldiers The brutality of war is vividly depicted through Hemingway s concise and powerful prose As the war intensifies Frederic is injured and sent to a hospital in Milan It is here that he reunites with Catherine Their love flourishes in the relative safety of the hospital They share moments of tenderness and passion Their relationship serves as a refuge from the chaos of war However the war looms over them creating an ever present tension Frederic s injury leads to a deeper understanding of the fragility of life and love He grapples with his feelings about the war and his place in it The novel captures the uncertainty and fear that soldiers face It also highlights the emotional toll that war takes on individuals Catherine represents both love and loss for Frederic She is a source of comfort and hope Their love is passionate but also marked by the fear of separation As the war progresses Frederic s concerns grow He fears losing Catherine to the war or to the harsh realities of life Hemingway s writing style is characterized by simplicity and clarity He uses short sentences and sparse descriptions This style reflects the stark realities of war The dialogue between characters is natural and unembellished It captures the essence of their emotions and relationships The novel also explores the theme of disillusionment Frederic s initial enthusiasm for the war fades as he witnesses its brutality He becomes increasingly aware of the futility of war This disillusionment is a central theme in Hemingway s work It reflects the experiences of a generation that faced the horrors of World War I As the story unfolds Frederic and Catherine s love is tested They face challenges that threaten to tear them apart The war continues to encroach upon their lives Frederic s desire to escape the war becomes stronger He longs for a life of peace and stability with Catherine The narrative takes a tragic turn as the war reaches its climax Frederic s experiences on the battlefield become more harrowing He witnesses the loss of friends and the destruction of lives The emotional weight of these experiences shapes his character He becomes more introspective and reflective Catherine s fate adds to the novel s sense of inevitability As the war progresses the couple s happiness is increasingly threatened The reader is left to ponder the impact of war on love and relationships The novel raises questions about the nature of sacrifice and the cost of love The conclusion of A Farewell to Arms is poignant and powerful It leaves readers with a sense of loss and resignation Frederic s journey is one of personal growth and understanding He comes to terms with the realities of war and love The novel ends on a note of ambiguity reflecting the complexities of human emotions A Farewell to Arms is considered one of Hemingway s greatest works It is a profound exploration of love loss and the human condition The novel s themes resonate with readers making it a timeless classic It captures the essence of a generation shaped by war and the search for meaning in life This novel is a must read for anyone interested in literature that explores the depths of human emotion Hemingway s unique style and powerful storytelling make this book a compelling choice A Farewell to Arms continues to be relevant today offering insights into the nature of love and the impact of war on individuals It is a powerful reminder of the fragility of life and the enduring strength of love
