Season In Rihata:

Conversations with Maryse Condé Maryse Condé, Françoise Pfaff, 1996-01-01 This book is an exploration of the life and art of Maryse Condé who first won international acclaim for Segu a novel about West African experience and the slave trade Born in Guadeloupe in 1937 Condé lived in Guinea after it won its independence from France Later she lived in Ghana and Senegal during turbulent decisive moments in the histories of these countries Her writings novels plays essays stories and children's books have led her to an increasingly important role within Africa and throughout the world Françoise Pfaff met Maryse Condé in 1981 when she first interviewed her Their friendship grew quickly In 1991 the two women continued recording conversations about Condé's geographical sojourns and literary paths her personality and her thoughts Their conversations reveal connections between Condé's vivid art and her eventful passionate life In her encounters with historical and literary figures and in her opinions on politics and culture Condé appears as an engaging witness to her time The conversations frequently sparkle with humor at other moments they are infused with profound seriousness Maryse Condé is the recipient of the French literary awards Le Grand Prix Littéraire de la Femme and Le Prix de l'Académie Française She currently teaches at Columbia University and her most recent works include Tree of Life and Crossing the Mangrove Born and educated in Paris Françoise Pfaff is a professor of French at Howard University The translator of this book she is also the author of Twenty-five Black African Filmmakers: A Critical Study with Filmography and Bio-Bibliography and The Cinema of Ousmane Sembène: A Pioneer of African Cinema Entretiens avec Maryse Condé was first published in France in 1993 The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Autobiographical Tightropes Leah D.

Hewitt,1990-01-01 In order to write said Simone de Beauvoir the first essential condition is that reality can no longer be taken for granted She and four other French women writers of the second half of the twentieth century Nathalie Sarraute Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig and Maryse Condé illustrate that producing autobiography is like performing a tightrope act on the slippery line between fact and fiction Autobiographical Tightropes emphasizes the tension in the works of these major writers as they move in and out of experience and literature violating the neat boundaries between genres and confusing the distinctions between remembering and creating Focusing on selected works Leah D Hewitt for the first time anywhere explores the connections among the authors In doing so she shows how contemporary women s autobiography in France links with feminist issues literary tradition and trends and postmodern theories of writing In light of these theories Hewitt offers a new reading of de Beauvoir s memoirs and reveals how her attempt to represent the past faithfully is undone by irony by literary and feminine detours Other analysts of Nathalie Sarraute s writing have dwelt mainly on formal considerations of the New Novel but Hewitt exposes a repressed forbidden feminine aspect in her literary innovations Unlike Sarraute Duras cannot be connected with just one literary movement political stance style or kind of feminism because her writing largely autobiographical is marked by chameleon like transformations The chapters on Wittig and Condé show how within the bounds of feminism lesbians and women of color challenge the individualistic premises of autobiography Hewitt demonstrates that despite vast differences among these five writers all of them reveal in their autobiographical works the self s need of a fictive other Postcolonial Thought in the French Speaking World Charles Forsdick,David

Murphy,2022-04-01 In the late 1990 s Postcolonial Studies risked imploding as a credible area of academic enquiry Repeated anthologization and an overemphasis on the English language literatures led to sustained critiques of the field and to an active search for alternative approaches to the globalized and transnational formations of the post colonial world In the early twenty first century however postcolonial began to reveal a new openness to its comparative dimensions French language contributors to postcolonial debate such as Edouard Glissant and Abdelkebir Khatibi have recently risen to greater prominence in the English speaking world and there have also appeared an increasing number of important critical and theoretical texts on postcolonial issues written by scholars working principally on French language material It is to such a context that this book responds Acknowledging these shifts this volume provides an essential tool for students and scholars outside French departments seeking a way into the study of Francophone colonial postcolonial debates At the same time it supplies scholars in French with a comprehensive overview of essential ideas and key intellectuals in this area Her

True-true Name Pamela Mordecai,Betty Wilson,1989 31 women writers from throughout the Caribbean express the loss and the longing the pride and passion of the Caribbean identity Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith,1997-03-26 A comprehensive encyclopedic guide to the authors works and topics crucial to the literature of Central and South America and the Caribbean the Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature includes over 400 entries written by experts in the field of Latin American studies Most entries are of 1500 words but the encyclopedia also includes survey articles of up to 10 000 words on the literature of individual countries of the colonial period and of ethnic minorities including the Hispanic communities in the United States Besides presenting and illuminating the traditional canon the encyclopedia also stresses the contribution made by women authors and by contemporary writers Outstanding Reference Source Outstanding Reference Book A History of Literature in the Caribbean A. James Arnold, Julio Rodriguez-Luis, J. Michael Dash, 1994-09-06 This history for the first time charts the literature of the entire Caribbean the islands as well as continental littoral as one cultural region It breaks new ground in establishing a common grid for reading literatures that have been kept separate by their linguistic frontiers Readers will have access to the best current scholarship on the evolution of popular and literate cultures in the various regions since their earliest emergence The History of Literature in the Caribbean brings together the most distinguished team of literary Caribbeanists ever assembled cutting across ideological commitments and critical methods Differences in point of view between individual contributors are left intact here as the sign of the colonial inheritance of the region Introductions and conclusions to the various sections of the History written by the respective subeditors set them in proper perspective The unique synoptic aspect of the History lies in its comprehensiveness and its range which are unequalled Contributors A James Arnold Julio Rodriguez Luis H Lopez Morales Maria Elena Rodriguez Castro Silvio Torres Saillant Seymour Menton Ian I Smart Efrain Barradas Raquel Chang Rodriguez Carlos Alonso Ivan A Schulman W L Siemens William Luis Gustavo Pellon Emilio Bejel Sandra M Cypess Peter Earle Adriana Mndez Rodenas J Michael Dash Ulrich Fleischmann Maximilien Laroche Rgis Antoine Lon Franois Hoffmann Randolph Hezekiah Bridget Jones F I Case Marie Denise Shelton Beverly Ormerod J Michael Dash Jack Corzani Anthea Morrison Juris Silenieks Frantz Fanon Vere Knight Concise Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith, 2014-01-14 The Concise Encyclopedia includes all entries on topics and countries cited by many reviewers as being among the best entries in the book entries on the 50 leading writers in Latin America from colonial times to the present and detailed articles on some 50 important works in this literature those who read and studied in the English speaking world Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia s coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in African itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study House/Garden/Nation Ileana Rodríguez, 1994-05-11 How ironic the author thought on learning of the Sandinista's electoral defeat that at its death the Revolutionary State left Woman Violeta Chamorro located at the center The election signaled the end of one transition and the beginning of another with Woman somewhere on the border between the neo liberal and marxist projects It is such transitions that Ileana Rodríguez takes up here unraveling their weave of gender ethnicity and nation as it is revealed in literature written by women In House Garden Nation the narratives of five Centro Caribbean writers illustrate these times of transition Dulce María Loynaz from colonial rule to independence in Cuba Jean Rhys from colony to commonwealth in Dominica Simone Schwarz Bart from slave to free labor in Guadeloupe Gioconda Belli from oligarchic capitalism to social democratic socialism in Nicaragua and Teresa de la Parra from independence to modernity in Venezuela Focusing on the nation as garden hacienda or plantation Rodríguez

The Daughter's Return Caroline Rody, 2001-04-12 The Daughter's Return offers a close analysis of an emerging genre in African American and Caribbean fiction produced by women writers who make imaginative returns to their ancestral pasts Considering some of the defining texts of contemporary fiction Toni Morrison's Beloved Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea and Michelle Cliff's No Telephone to Heaven Rody discusses their common inclusion of a daughter who returns to the site of her people's founding trauma of slavery through memory or magic Rody treats these texts as allegorical expressions of the desire of writers newly emerging into cultural authority to reclaim their difficult inheritance and finds a counter plot of heroines encounters with women of other racial and ethnic groups running through these works African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay,2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom

This is the Canon Joan Anim-Addo,Deirdre Osborne,Kadija Sesay,2021-10-28 A vital and timely introduction to some of the best books I ve ever read Perfectly curated and filled with brilliant literature Nikesh Shukla The ultimate introduction to post colonial literature for those who want to understand the classics and the pioneers in this exciting area of books Symeon Brown These are the books you should read This is the canon Joan Anim Addo Deirdre Osborne and Kadija Sesay have curated a decolonized reading list that celebrates the wide and diverse experiences of people from around the world of all backgrounds and all races It disrupts the all too often white dominated required reading collections that have become the accepted norm and highlights powerful voices and cultural perspectives that demand a place on our shelves From literary giants such as Toni Morrison and Chinua Achebe to less well known but equally vital writers such as Caribbean novelist Earl Lovelace or Indigenous Australian author Tony Birch the novels recommended here are in turn haunting and lyrical innovative and inspiring edgy and poignant The power of great fiction is that readers have the opportunity to discover new worlds and encounter other beliefs and opinions This is the Canon offers a rich and multifaceted perspective on our past present and future which deserves to be read by all bibliophiles whether they are book club members or solitary readers self educators or teachers
