Season Inside One Year In College Basketball:

A Season Inside John Feinstein, 2011-11-30 Feinstein takes readers inside the locker rooms the grueling practices the late night strategy sessions They get a close up look at recruiting referees injuries winning losing and the private lives of the game s biggest stars

The Legends Club John Feinstein, 2017-02-21 On March 18 1980 the Duke basketball program announced the hiring of Mike Krzyzewski the man who would restore glory to the team The only problem no one knew who Krzyzewski was Nine days later Jim Valvano was hired by North Carolina State to be their new head coach The hiring didn t raise as many eyebrows but the two new coaches had a similar goal to unseat North Carolina s Dean Smith as the king of college basketball And just like that the most sensational competitive decade in history was about to unfold In the skillful hands of John Feinstein The Legends Club captures an era in American sport and culture documenting the inside view of a decade of absolutely incredible competition Feinstein pulls back the curtain on the recruiting wars the intensely personal competition that wasn t always friendly the enormous pressure and national stakes and the battle for the very soul of college basketball

Cheering for Self James S. Vass Jr., James Vass Jr., 2003-05-13 This book is a study of UW men s basketball fans during the 2001 2002 season and explores their proclivity to cheering for self during basketball events The term basketball event is used rather than basketball game to make clear that everything connected to and seen heard or experienced before during and after a basketball game is included The actual game itself is only part of the basketball event An undercurrent runs throughout this participant observation mini ethnography dealing with access and the relative quality of that access to basketball events being affected by ones age class race and gender The prominent role of advertising in shaping basketball events and helping to construct fans as consumers of products both commercial and institutional during the process of cheering for self is central to this idea Cheering for self is the activity engaged in by individual fans after they find things to identify or connect with through personal investment Fans cheer for self indirectly Fans cheer for the team that they identify with Through the process of cheering for self while attending the basketball event people are taught how to become fans to consume a UW product the basketball event and to consume advertisers products People have a tendency to spend their entire life trying to impress others
