Forgetfulness Richard Reitsma, 2024-08-15 The Jewish Holocaust orphan Jay's life story is linked to tales of deep hatreds profound love and paralyzing fears The storyteller is Harold He had been Jay's boyhood friend and only discovered late in life that Jay was one of a small number of Dutch Jews who had not been killed by Hitler and his murderous goons The hatred in this story is projected through the character of a Dutch Nazi who first raped Jay's mom and later killed her The love is presented through the story of the three way friendship between Jay's adoptive mom his natural mom and Harold's uncle The paralyzing fears in the story are portrayed through the character of Jay's adoptive dad who even after the war was still too afraid to tell Jay about his birth mom The ongoing drama in this three family story is repeatedly brought to the fore through the actions of Harold's dad who had the bravado of a storm chaser but the attention span of a two year old Jay's story is a parable in the sense that Hitler's henchmen usually but not always used violence and fear as tools to suppress the spirit of love in the Netherlands during WWII and afterwards

Eternity in the Midst of Time Wilfrid Stinissen, 2019-01-01

Can time be our friend At first glance the question seems ridiculous because the apparent scarcity of time is a constant source of stress in our busy lives There are not enough hours in the day we say as we collapse late at night Deep down we know that we cannot go on like this Father Stinnisen's book dares us to see time with new eyes The insight that eternity is written in the depths of our hearts helps us to live in time in a way that leads us deeper into God's joy We are like children in a land of fairy tales where everything is exciting and exploration never ends We therefore should rejoice that everything around us is great and mysterious and that we can live in eternal wonder His intention is not to explain what time is and thus take away its mystery Instead his aim is to show us how to see time from different perspectives and to discover how rich and multifaceted it is Above all he demonstrates how we can make use of the tremendous possibilities that time offers to us
