Attracting Songbirds to Your Backyard Sally Roth, 2012-05-08 Bird lovers will learn to attract new visitors by offering treats that songbirds like best such as soft easy to peck foods that closely mimic caterpillars their top food preference. And planting just a few carefree perennials and shrubs can provide opportunities for cover and nesting. Sally Roth's Attracting Songbirds to Your Backyard draws on the latest science and 50 years of observation to reveal these fascinating details. In the wee hours it's the robins that sing first followed by the babble of house wrens and the whistle of cardinals. Some birds learn birdsongs throughout their lives while others stop learning once they can mimic their parents' song. It's Dad not Mom who teaches the young birds to sing. Simple tips, ideas and recipes as well as an understanding of why songbirds are coming from the treetops into the backyard will help any bird enthusiast create a songbird sanctuary. The Price Paid Tim Paine, 2022-10-25 Tim Paine was the golden child of Australian cricket Affectionately dubbed The Kid by fans Paine was the youngest ever contracted player in Australia at 16 years old The Paine's three-year turn at Test captaincy was turbulent on the pitch with a slew of narrow wins and close-tough results. Then in November 2021 a sexting scandal saw him step down as Australia's Test captain taking an indefinite break from the game. Paine was down but not out. As the scandal has played out in the public spotlight, Paine has had to grapple with the effect of the aftermath on his marriage, his career and his reputation. He made a mistake and has paid the price for it. A high price. Lines of Scrimmage Joe Oestreich, Scott Pleasant, 2015-08-14 As in many small towns in the South, folks in Conway, South Carolina, fill the stands on fall Fridays to cheer on their local high school football squad. In 1989, with returning starter Carlos Hunt at quarterback and having finished with an 8-4 record in 1988, hopes were high that the beloved Tigers would win their first state championship. But during spring practice, Coach Chuck Jordan, who is white, benched Hunt, who is black, in favor of Mickey Wilson, an inexperienced white player. Seeing this demotion of the black quarterback as an example of the racism prevalent in football generally and in Conway specifically, thirty-one of the team's thirty-seven black players, under the guidance of H. H. Singleton, pastor of Cherry Hill Missionary Baptist Church and president of the local NAACP, boycotted the team in protest. The season-long strike severed the town along racial lines as it became clear that the incident was about much more than football. It was about the legacy of slavery and segregation and Jim Crow and other points of tension and oppression that many people in Conway and the South had wrongly assumed were settled. While the 1989 season is long over, the story reverberates today. Chuck Jordan is still coaching at Conway High and he's still without that state championship. Meanwhile, Mickey Wilson is now coaching Conway's fiercest rival, the Myrtle Beach Seahawks. In the annual Victory Bell Game between Conway and Myrtle Beach, the biggest contest of the year for both teams, a veteran coach and his young protégé compete against each other against the backdrop of a racial conflict that bitterly divided a small southern town.
