Lord Of The Dance The Mani Rimdu Festival In Tibet And Nepal:

Lord of the Dance Richard J. Kohn, 2001-05-31 Richard Kohn's book transports the reader to the high Himalayas for an in depth look at the inner workings of the three week long Mani Rimdu festival. This event encapsulates the breadth and depth of the Himalayan Buddhist experience from the profound practices of Great Perfection meditation to the worship of the gods of the neighboring mountains. The festival uses archaic material as well as prayers written by contemporary lamas and it entails the preparation of numerous works of ritual art such as mandalas constructed of colored sand and sculptures of barley flour and colored butter called tormas. Two days of public performance, a day of spiritual empowerment and a day of masked dance complete the festival. A description of Mani Rimdu from beginning to end. Lord of the Dance goes on to consider the structure of Tibetan ritual and its place within the history of South and Central Asian religions. In addition, the author discusses ritual as an art form and analyses the transformation of a textual tradition into performance art. Through the small window of the Himalayan festival, the book overlooks the vast horizon of the Buddhist experience. Lord of the Dance

Richard J. Kohn, 2001-06-14 A first hand description of the Mani Rimdu festival of Tibet and Nepal, an event which encapsulates the Himalayan Buddhist experience. Kun-mkhyen Pad-ma dKar-po's Amitayus Tradition of Vajrayana Buddhist Transformative Care Bhikshuni Lozang Trinlae, 2017 The book opens fresh ground in Buddhist studies and practical theology by applying phenomenological research methods to empirically discern transformative aspects of contemplative experience using reports elicited directly from contemporary practitioners. The work portrays the experiences of performing Kun mkhyen Pad ma dKar po's 16th c ritual in a practice tradition attributed to the 12th c female Indian teacher Siddharaj i. Preliminary spiritual care and contemplative factor models are presented along with a detailed theoretical process analysis of positive spiritual development as a method of spiritual care through the contemplative action of the liturgy. Bhikshuni Lozang Trinlae is a fully ordained Buddhist monastic contemplative practical theologian and chaplain. Founder of Mahaprajapati Vihar hermitage in Solukhumbu, Nepal. Her scholarly work is in the areas of contemplative studies and hermeneutics of lived religion and it explores the epistemological and transformative characteristics of religious experience. Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing: Spiritualität interkulturell Vol 6 Subject Buddhist Studies Pastoral Care Revisiting Rituals in a Changing Tibetan World Katia Buffetrille, 2012-08-03 Through ten contributions written by specialists, this book examines the changes rituals have undergone in Tibet, Nepal, and Mongolia in the wake of political and socio-cultural upheavals.

Tibetan Shamanism

Larry Peters,2016-09-27 Reflecting sixteen years of intensive fieldwork this book is a rich chronicle of the daily lives belief systems and healing rituals of four highly revered Tibetan shamans forced into exile by the Chinese invasion during the 1950s Larry Peters lived and studied closely with the shamans in Nepal learning their belief system observing and participating in their rituals and introducing many dozens of students to their worldview Including photographs of the shamans in ecstatic ritual and trance this book one of the most extensive ethnographic works ever done on Tibetan shamanism captures the end of Tibetan shamanism while opening a window onto the culture and traditions that survived centuries of attack in Tibet only to die out in Nepal The violent treatment of shamans by the Buddhist lama has a long history in Tibet and neighboring Mongolia At one point shamans were burned at the stake However in the mountainous Himalayan terrain especially in the difficult to reach areas geographically distant from the Buddhist monastic urban centers shamans were respected and their work

Cuevas,2008-04-02 In Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J Cuevas examines a fascinating but little known genre of Tibetan narrative literature about the d lok ordinary men and women who claim to have died traveled through hell and then returned from the afterlife These narratives enjoy audiences ranging from the most sophisticated monastic scholars to pious townsfolk villagers and nomads Their accounts emphasize the universal Buddhist principles of impermanence and worldly suffering the fluctuations of karma and the feasibility of obtaining a favorable rebirth through virtue and merit Providing a clear detailed analysis of four vivid return from death tales including the stories of a Tibetan housewife a lama a young noble woman and a Buddhist monk Cuevas argues that these narratives express ideas about death and the afterlife that held wide currency among all classes of faithful Buddhists in Tibet Relying on a diversity of traditional Tibetan sources Buddhist canonical scriptures scholastic textbooks ritual and meditation manuals and medical treatises in addition to the d lok works themselves Cuevas surveys a broad range of popular Tibetan Buddhist ideas about death and dying He explores beliefs about the vulnerability of the soul and its journey beyond death karmic retribution and the terrors of hell the nature of demons and demonic possession ghosts and reanimated corpses Cuevas argues that these extraordinary accounts exhibit flexibility between social and religious categories that are conventionally polarized and concludes that contrary to the accepted wisdom such rigid divisions as elite and folk monastic and lay religion are not sufficiently representative of traditional Tibetan Buddhism on the ground This study offers innovative Rebuilding Buddhism Sarah LeVine, David N. Gellner, 2007-09-30 Rebuilding Buddhism describes in evocative detail the experiences and achievements of Nepalis who have adopted Theravada Buddhism. This form of Buddhism was introduced into Nepal from Burma and Sri Lanka in the 1930s and its adherents have struggled for recognition and acceptance ever since. With its focus on the austere figure of the monk and the biography of the historical Buddha and more recently with its emphasis on individualizing meditation and on gender equality Theravada Buddhism contrasts sharply with the highly ritualized Tantric Buddhism traditionally practiced in the Kathmandu Valley. Based on extensive fieldwork interviews and historical reconstruction the book provides a rich portrait of the different ways of being a Nepali Buddhist over the past seventy years. At the same time it explores the impact of the Theravada movement and what its gradual success has meant for Buddhism for society and for men and women in Nepal.

The Gathering of Intentions Jacob P. Dalton, 2016-03-29 The Gathering of Intentions reads a single Tibetan Buddhist ritual system through the movements of Tibetan history revealing the social and material dimensions of an ostensibly timeless tradition. By subjecting tantric practice to historical analysis the book offers new insight into the origins of Tibetan Buddhism the formation of its canons the emergence of new lineages and ceremonies and modern efforts to revitalize the religion by returning to its mythic origins. The ritual system explored in this volume is based on the Gathering of Intentions Sutra the fundamental root tantra of the Anuyoga class of teachings belonging to the Nyingma Ancient school of Tibetan Buddhism. Proceeding chronologically from the ninth century to the present each chapter features a Tibetan author negotiating a perceived gap between the original root text the Gathering of Intentions and the lived religious or political concerns of his day. These ongoing tensions underscore the significance of Tibet's elaborate esoteric ritual systems which have persisted for centuries evolving in response to historical conditions. Rather than overlook practice in favor of philosophical concerns this volume prioritizes Tibetan Buddhism's ritual systems for a richer portrait of the tradition.

Echoes of Enlightenment Suzanne M. Bessenger, 2016-06-29 Echoes of Enlightenment explores the issues of gender and sainthood raised by the recently discovered liberation story of the fourteenth century Tibetan female Buddhist practitioner S nam Peldren Born in 1328 S nam Peldren spent most of her adult life as a nomad in eastern Tibet until her death in 1372 She is believed to have been illiterate lacking religious education and unconnected to established religious institutions For that reason and because as a woman her claims of religious authority would have been constantly questioned S nam Peldren s success in legitimizing her claims of divine identity appear all the more remarkable Today the site of her death is recognized as sacred by local residents Suzanne Bessenger draws on the new found biography of the saint to understand how the written record of the saint s life is shaped both by the hagiographical agendas of its multiple authors and by the dictates of the genres of Tibetan religious literature including biography and poetry She considers S nam Peldren s enduring historical legacy as a fascinating piece of Tibetan history that reveals much about the social and textual machinations of saint production Finally she identifies S nam Peldren as one of the earliest recorded instances of a historical Tibetan woman successfully using the uniquely Tibetan hermeneutic of deity emanation to achieve religious authority

The Dalai Lama and the Nechung Oracle Christopher Bell, 2021-03-05 Tibetan Buddhism and the Dalai Lama enjoy global popularity and relevance yet the longstanding practice of oracles within the tradition is still little known and understood The Nechung Oracle for example is believed to become possessed by an important god named Peihar who speaks through the human medium to confer with the Dalai Lama on matters of state The Dalai Lama and the Nechung Oracle is the first monograph to explore the mythologies and rituals of this god the Buddhist monastery that houses him and his close friendship with incarnations of the Dalai Lama over the centuries In the seventeenth century during the reign of the Fifth Dalai Lama the protector deity Peihar and his oracle at Nechung Monastery were state sanctioned by the nascent Tibetan government becoming the head of an expansive pantheon of worldly deities assigned to protect the newly unified country The governments of later Dalai Lamas expanded the deity s influence as well as their own by establishing Peihar at monasteries and temples around Lhasa and across Tibet Peihar s cult at Nechung Monastery came to embody the Dalai Lama s administrative control in a mutual relationship of protection and prestige the effects of which continue to reverberate within Tibet and among the Tibetan exile community today The friendship between these two immortals has spanned nearly five hundred years across the Tibetan plateau and beyond
