He was lauded in his own day as one of the leading figures in English literature, having written the notable novel Lord of the World (1907). Benson was the youngest son of Edward White Benson, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his wife Mary, and the younger brother of Edward Frederic Benson and A. C. Benson. Benson was educated at Eton College and then studied classics and theology at Trinity College, Cambridge, from 1890 to 1893. In 1895 Benson was ordained a priest in the Church of England by his father, who was the then Archbishop of Canterbury. After his father died suddenly in 1896, Benson was sent on a trip to the Middle East to recover his own health. While there, he began to question the status of the Church of England and to consider the claims of the Roman Catholic Church. His own piety began to tend toward the High Church tradition, and he started exploring religious life in various Anglican communities, eventually obtaining permission to join the Community of the Resurrection. Benson made his profession as a member of the community in 1901, at which time he had no thoughts of leaving the Church of England. As he continued his studies and began writing, however, he became more and more uneasy with his own doctrinal position, and on 11 September 1903 he was received into the Catholic Church. He was awarded the Dignitary of Honour of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre. Benson was ordained as a Roman Catholic priest in 1904 and sent to Cambridge. He continued his writing career along with his ministry as a priest. Like both his brothers, Edward Frederic Benson, Fred, and Arthur Christopher Benson, Robert wrote many ghost and horror stories, collected in The Light Invisible (1903) and A Mirror of Shallott (1907). His novel Lord of the World (1907) is generally regarded as one of the first modern dystopias; see List of dystopian literature. As a young man, Benson recalled he

Font adjustments, biography included. Unabridged 100% Original content. Formatted for e-reader. Illustrated. About Lord of the World by Robert Hugh Benson: Lord of the World is a 1907 novel by Monsignor Robert Hugh Benson that centers upon the reign of the Anti-Christ and the End of the World. It has been called prophetic by Dale Ahlquist, Joseph Pearce, Pope Benedict XVI, and Pope Francis. According to his biographer Fr. Cyril Martindale, Mgr Benson's depiction of the future was in many ways an inversion of the science fiction novels of H. G. Wells. In particular, Benson was sickened by Wells' belief that Atheism, Marxism, World Government, and Eugenics would lead to an earthly utopia. Due to his depiction of a Wellsian future as a global police state, Benson's novel has been called one of the first modern works of dystopian fiction. Writing during the pontificate of Pope Pius X and prior to the First World War, Monsignor Benson accurately predicted interstate highways and passenger air travel using an advanced form of Zeppelin, called the volor. However, he also presumed the survival of the British Empire and predominant travel by rail.

Like many other Catholics of the era in which he wrote Monsignor Benson shares the political and economic views of G K Chesterton and Hilaire Belloc Lord of the World Robert Hugh Benson, 2018-11-21 Lord of the World by Robert Hugh Benson In or about the year 2000 humanity has reached that incredibly lofty goal to which its intrinsic efforts can carry it but rejected everything but crass materialism Technology has advanced to the point where no one need work for a living while the social sciences have achieved a smoothly running if almost unbearably sterile social order Formal religious beliefs except for Catholicism have been uprooted and eliminated as coherent systems and the Catholic Church has been completely discredited in the eyes of the world finally being outlawed Lord of the World Robert Hugh Benson, 1912 Heythrop Journal, 2002 A select book list appears quarterly Lord of the World Robert Hugh Benson, 2018-11-11 Lord of the World is a 1907 dystopian science fiction novel by Monsignor Robert Hugh Benson that centers upon the reign of the Anti Christ and the End of the World It has been called prophetic by Dale Ahlquist Joseph Pearce Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis Monsignor Robert Hugh Benson a former High Church Anglican Vicar began writing Lord of the World two years after his conversion to Roman Catholicism rocked the Church of England in 1903 The youngest son of the Archbishop of Canterbury Edward White Benson and the society hostess Mary Sidgwick Benson Robert was descended from a very long line of Anglican clergymen He had also read the litany at his father's 1896 funeral at Canterbury Cathedral and was widely expected to one day take his father's place as the most senior clergyman in the Anglican Communion After a crisis of faith described in his 1913 memoir Confessions of a Convert however Benson was received into the Roman Catholic Church on September 11 1903 According to Joseph Pearce The press made much of the story that the son of the former Archbishop of Canterbury had become a Catholic and the revelation rocked the Anglican establishment in a way reminiscent of the days of the Oxford Movement and the conversion of Newman 4 The former Vicar found himself inundated with hate mail from Anglican clergy men women and even children Benson found himself accused of being a deliberate traitor an infatuated fool and of bringing dishonor upon his father's name and memory Although he replied scrupulously to every letter Benson was deeply hurt He later wrote that he received considerable solace in the words that an Anglican Bishop had spoken to his mother Remember that he has followed his conscience after all and what else could his father wish for him than that After his ordination as a Catholic priest at Rome in 1904 Fr Benson had been assigned as a Catholic Chaplain at Cambridge University It was during his stay at Cambridge Rectory that Lord of the World was conceived and written Robert Hugh Benson AFSC KC SG KGCHS 18 November 1871 Lord of the World By: Robert Hugh Benson Robert Hugh Benson, 2017-11-06 Robert Hugh Benson 1871 1914 was the youngest son of Edward White Benson Archbishop of Canterbury and younger brother of Edward Frederic Benson In 1895 he was ordained a priest in the Church of England by his father who was then Archbishop of Canterbury After many years of questioning and soul searching he was received into the Roman Catholic Church in 1903 He was ordained a Catholic priest in 1904 and named a Monsignor in 1911 This book written in 1907 is Benson's dystopic vision

Benson's 1907 apocalyptic tale of the Antichrist is one of the first modern dystopias. Humanism has eliminated world conflict but practices a subtle barbarism upon the human mind. Religion is either suppressed or ignored. The Catholic Church, confined to ghettos, occupies an increasingly perilous position in the public square. The populace turns toward euthanasia as the solution to bodily pain and spiritual crisis. Meanwhile, a mysterious figure of apparent hope, Julian Felsenburgh, rises to become the head of a single world government. The plot follows a priest, Father Percy Franklin, who finds himself caught up in the final and increasingly open struggle between Antichrist and Christ. Note: In this edition, ISBN 1507790503, Latin phrases are translated in footnotes. Interesting: it must be to all to whom the deepest convictions of a man's heart are of moment. And in the artistic balance and taste of Father Benson's literary power, every reader will find delight. New York Times: Mr. Benson sees the world generations hence free at last from all minor quarrels and ranged against itself in two camps: Humanitarianism for those who believe in no divinity but that of man; Catholicism for those who believe in no divinity but that of God. London Times: The book as art is beautiful, delicately balanced, deeply inspired, intelligently executed. Putnam's

In or about the year 2000, humanity has reached that incredibly lofty goal to which its intrinsic efforts can carry it but rejected everything but crass materialism. Technology has advanced to the point where no one need work for a living while the social sciences have achieved a smoothly running, if almost unbearably sterile, social order. Formal religious beliefs, except for Catholicism, have been uprooted and eliminated as coherent systems, and the Catholic Church has been completely discredited in the eyes of the world, finally being outlawed.

The result is everything the late Victorians and Edwardians believed would bring human happiness and which brings nothing but the advent of new superstitions despair and the end of the world maybe      Lord of the World: Large Print Edition
