Los Olvidados:

A Companion to Latin American Film Stephen M. Hart, 2004 A history of Latin American cinema with detailed analysis of the twenty five best films Latin American cinema has seen major developments in the past half century and some of the most exciting work in contemporary film now originates there This Companion traces its development from the mid 1890s with particular attention to the early period when it was dominated by foreign film makers or foreign models such as Hollywood through the 1960s when as a genre it found its feet the New Latin American Cinema movement and beyond Detailed analysis of the best twenty five films of Latin America follows cast and crew awards plots themes and techniques The Guide to Further Reading includes important books articles and Internet sites FILMS Que viva Mexico Los olvidados Dos tipos de cuidado Orfeu Negro Memorias del subdesarrollo Lucía El chagal de Nahueltoro Yawar Mallku La batalla de Chile La última cena Pixote a lei do mais fraco El Norte Camila La historia oficial Cartas del parque La tarea Yo la peor de todas La frontera El viaje Fresa y chocolate Como agua para chocolate Central do Brasil Amores perros Y tu mamá también Cidade de Deus STEPHEN M HART is Professor of Hispanic Studies University College London and Profesor Honorario Universidad de San Marcos Lima Plotting Women Jean Franco, 1989 Where is the common ground for feminist theory and Latin American culture Jean Franco explores Mexican women's struggle for interpretive power in relation to the Catholic religion the nation and post modern society and examines the writings of women who wrote under the shadow of recognized male writers as well as the works of more marginal figures In this original and skillfully written book Franco demonstrates the many feminisms that emerge in apparently rigid and adverse situations and provides the foundation for a more comprehensive less ethnocentric feminist theory Mexican Cinema Carl J. Mora, 1989 The author's main reason for writing this book however is simply to provide an introduction to the Mexican commercial cinema for American and other English speaking readers Although the United States has been and continues to be a major foreign market for Mexican movies the overwhelming majority of Americans are unaware of them Mexican films are restricted to the Hispanic theater circuits and shown without English subtitles therefore anyone wishing to see a Mexican movie would have to be fairly fluent in Spanish Such a requisite effectively eliminates almost the entire general audience in the United States from exposure to Mexican cinema Critical White Studies Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 1997 No longer content with accepting whiteness as the norm critical scholars have turned their attention to whiteness itself In Critical White Studies Looking Behind the Mirror numerous thinkers including Toni Morrison Eric Foner Peggy McIntosh Andrew Hacker Ruth Frankenberg John Howard Griffin David Roediger Kathleen Heale Cleaver Noel Ignatiev Cherrie Moraga and Reginald Horsman attack such questions as How was whiteness invented and why How has the category whiteness changed over time Why did some immigrant groups such as the Irish and Jews start out as nonwhite and later become white Can some individual people be both white and nonwhite at different times and what does it mean to pass for white At what point does pride in being white cross the line into white power or white supremacy What can whites concerned over racial inequity or white privilege do about it Science and pseudoscience are presented side by side to demonstrate how our views on whiteness often reflect preconception not fact For example most scientists hold that race is not a valid scientific category genetic differences between races are insignificant compared to those within them Yet the one drop rule whereby those with any nonwhite heritage are classified as nonwhite persists even today As the bell curve controversy shows race concepts die hard especially when power and prestige lie behind them A sweeping portrait of the emerging field of whiteness studies Critical White Studies presents for the first time the best work from sociology law history cultural studies and literature Delgado and Stefancic expressly offer critical white studies as the next step in critical race theory In focusing on whiteness not only do they ask nonwhites to investigate more closely for what it means for others to be white but also they invite whites to examine themselves more searchingly and to look behind the mirror

The Altering Eye Robert Phillip Kolker, 2009 The Altering Eye covers a golden age of international cinema from the end of WWII through to the New German Cinema of the 1970s Combining historical political and textual analysis the author develops a pattern of cinematic invention and experimentation from neorealism through the modernist interventions of Jean Luc Godard and Rainer Maria Fassbinder focusing along the way on such major figures as Luis Bu uel Joseph Losey the Brazilian director Glauber Rocha and the work of major Cuban filmmakers Kolker s book has become a much quoted classic in the field of film studies providing essential reading for anybody interested in understanding the history of European and international cinema This new and revised edition includes a substantive new Preface by the author and an updated Bibliography

Bunuel and Mexico Ernesto R. Acevedo-Muñoz, 2025-03-18 Though Luis Bu uel one of the most important filmmakers of the twentieth century spent his most productive years as a director in Mexico film histories and criticism invariably pay little attention to his work during this period The only book length English language study of Bu uel s Mexican films this book is the first to explore a significant but neglected area of this filmmaker s distinguished career and thus to fill a gap in our appreciation and understanding of both Bu uel s achievement and the history of Mexican film Ernesto Acevedo Mu oz considers Bu uel s Mexican films made between 1947 and 1965 within the context of a national and nationalist film industry comparing the filmmaker s employment of styles genres character types themes and techniques to those most characteristic of Mexican cinema In this study Bu uel s films emerge as a link between the Classical Mexican cinema of the 1930s through the 1950s and the new Cinema of the 1960s flourishing in a time of crisis for the national film industry and introducing some of the stylistic and conceptual changes that would revitalize Mexican cinema

The Cinema of Latin America Alberto Elena, Marina Díaz López, 2004-03-24 The Cinema of Latin America is the first volume in the new 24 Frames series of studies of national and regional cinema In taking an explicitly text centered approach the books in this series offer a unique way of considering the particular concerns styles and modes of representation of numerous national cinemas around the world This volume focuses on the vibrant practices that make up Latin American cinema a historically important regional cinema and one that is increasingly returning to popular and academic appreciation Through 24 individual concise and insightful essays that each consider one significant film or documentary the editors of this volume have compiled a unique introduction to the cinematic output of countries as diverse as Brazil Argentina Cuba Mexico Bolivia Chile and Venezuela The work of directors such as Luis Buñuel Thomas Guitierrez Alea Walter Salles and Alfonso Arau is discussed and the collection includes in depth studies of seminal works as such Los Olvidados The Hour of the Furnaces Like Water For Chocolate Foreign Land and Amoros Perros

Latin American Cinema Lisa Shaw, Stephanie Dennison, 2014-10-01 Renewed interest in Latin American film industries has opened a host of paths of scholarly exploration Productions from different countries reflect particular social attitudes political climates and self conceptions and must be considered separately and as a whole The search for national identity is a key component of Latin American films in a time of decreasing cultural diversity and pressures to westernize Globalization and falling government support have fueled cross border collaborations calling into question the idea of a movie's nationality and leaving some nations film industries on the brink of collapse Whether thriving or barely surviving struggling to remain distinct or embracing globalization on its own terms addressing the government or society Latin American cinema remains vibrant offering a wealth of material to scholars of all stripes These collected essays explore important elements of Latin American cinema and its associated national film industries The first section of essays examines the impact of modernization on both Latin American screen images and the industry itself offering modern and historical perspectives The second section focuses on filmmakers who deal with issues of gender and sexuality whether sexual transgression the role of female characters or societal attitudes towards sex and nudity The final section of essays discusses the relationship between national identity and Latin American film industries how movies are used to create a sense of self Uruguay's ongoing identity crisis and Brazil's use of Hollywood's stereotypical depiction of the country to depict itself Photographs and an annotated bibliography accompany each essay and an index supplements the text

Slums on Screen Igor Krstic, 2016-04-26 Near to one billion people call slums their home making it a reasonable claim to describe our world as a planet of slums But how has this hard and unyielding way of life been depicted on screen How have filmmakers engaged historically and across the globe with the social conditions of what is often perceived as the world's most miserable habitats Combining approaches from cultural globalisation and film studies Igor Krstic outlines a transnational history of films that either document or fictionalise the favelas shantytowns barrios populares or chawls of our planet of slums exploring the way accelerated urbanisation has intersected with an increasingly interconnected global film culture From Jacob Riis How The Other Half Lives 1890 to Danny Boyle's Slumdog Millionaire 2008 the volume provides a number of close readings of films from different historical periods and regions to outline how contemporary film and media practices relate to their past predecessors demonstrating the way various filmmakers both north and south of the equator have repeatedly grappled with rejected or continuously modified documentary and realist modes to convey life in our planet of slums of Cruelty André Bazin, 2013-03-06 Perhaps the single most important voice of cinema in the twentieth century Andr Bazin profoundly influenced the development of the scholarship that we know now as film criticism Bazin has acutely analyzed the cinematic values of our time extending to his international audiences the impact of art for the understanding and discrimination of his readers The depth and logic of his commentary has elevated film criticism to new heights The reputation of Andr Bazin continues to grow as his writings are published and studied by filmmakers and filmgoers alike Often referred to as the Edmund Wilson of film Bazin was more than a critic He made me see certain aspects of my work that I was unaware of said Luis Bu uel He was our conscience wrote Jean Renoir He was a logician in action echoed Fran ois Truffaut In The Cinema of Cruelty Fran ois Truffaut one of France s most celebrated and versatile filmmakers has collected Bazin s writings on six film greats Erich von Stroheim Carl Dreyer Preston Sturges Luis Bu uel Alfred Hitchcock and Akira Kurosawa The result is a major collection of film criticism

Surrealism and film after 1945 Kristoffer Noheden, Abigail Susik, 2021-07-06 This is the first volume to focus on the diverse permutations of international surrealist cinema after the canonical interwar period The collection features eleven original contributions by prominent scholars such as Tom Gunning Michael L wy Gavin Parkinson and Michael Richardson alongside other leading and emerging researchers An introductory chapter offers a historical overview as well as a theoretical framework for specific methodological approaches The collection demonstrates that renowned figures such as Leonora Carrington Maya Deren Alejandro Jodorowsky and Jan vankmajer took part in shaping a vibrant and distinctive surrealist film culture following the Second World War Addressing highly influential films and directors related to international surrealism during the second half of the twentieth century it expands the purview of both surrealism and film studies by situating surrealism as a major force in postwar cinema
