Swartzell,1992-03-23 The year 1988 was notable for being the centennial of playwright Eugene O'Neill's birth and a time of unprecedented democratization in the People's Republic of China and rapprochement with the West In this optimal climate a remarkable festival and conference devoted to O'Neill was held in Nanjing China orchestrated mainly by Haiping Liu who secured the funds and cooperation necessary to lure noted O'Neill scholars and theatre artists from around the world Liu selected and edited papers for publication after the conference but he realized that this would be a difficult task conducted from China At his invitation Lowell Swartzell a conference participant became co editor and in the dark days following the political upheaval in China in 1989 Swartzell assumed much of the burden of editing organizing clearing rights and generally readying the final volume The essays included capture the intellectual and artistic stimulation of the conference Organized in divisions similar to the order in which the papers were delivered they explore the major areas of O'Neill scholarship by some of the most renowned scholars from the United States Western and Eastern Europe Japan and China They emphasize O'Neill's international reputation and productions particularly in Asia Included is an open forum discussion of the festival productions as well as photographs The circumstances of the festival and conference are a story unto themselves and in their individual introductions the co editors relate some of the background and convey some of the flavor of the events providing insights into the continued appeal of O'Neill in China and the world Rawhide Ranger, Ira Aten Bob Alexander,2011 Ira Aten was the epitome of a frontier lawman He enrolled in Company D of the Texas Rangers during the transition from Indian fighters to peace officers The years Ira spent as a Ranger were packed with adventure border troubles shoot outs major crimes and manhunts Aten's role in these events earned him a spot in the Ranger Hall of Fame Perhaps the Stars Ada Palmer,2021-11-02 From the 2017 John W Campbell Award Winner for Best Writer Ada Palmer's Perhaps the Stars is the final book of the Hugo Award shortlisted Terra Ignota series World Peace turns into global civil war In the future the leaders of Hive nations nations without fixed location clandestinely committed nefarious deeds in order to maintain an outward semblance of utopian stability But the facade could only last so long The comforts of effortless global travel and worldwide abundance may have tempered humanity's darkest inclinations but conflict remains deeply rooted in the human psyche All it needed was a catalyst in form of special little boy to ignite half a millennium of repressed chaos Now war spreads throughout
