Lost And Found A Second Generation Response To The Holocaust:

From Things Lost Shirli Gilbert, 2017-05-15 An intimate history of the Holocaust that casts new light on our understanding of victimhood and survival In May 1933 a young man named Rudolf Schwab fled Nazi Germany His departure allegedly came at the insistence of a close friend who later joined the Party Schwab eventually arrived in South Africa one of the few countries left where Jews could seek refuge and years later resumed a relationship in letters with the Nazi who in many ways saved his life From Things Lost Forgotten Letters and the Legacy of the Holocaust is a story of displacement survival and an unlikely friendship in the wake of the Holocaust via an extraordinary collection of letters discovered in a forgotten trunk Only a handful of extended Schwab family members were alive in the war's aftermath Dispersed across five continents their lives mirrored those of countless refugees who landed in the most unlikely places Over years in exile a web of communication became an alternative world for these refugees a place where they could remember what they had lost and rebuild their identities anew Among the cast of characters that historian Shirli Gilbert came to know through the letters one name that appeared again and again was Karl Kipfer He was someone with whom Rudolf clearly got on exceedingly well there was lots of joking familiarity and sentimental reminiscing That was Grandpa's best friend growing up Rudolf's grandson explained to Gilbert He was a Nazi and was the one who encouraged Rudolf to leave Germany He also later helped him to recover the family's property Gilbert takes readers on a journey through a family's personal history wherein we learn about a cynical Karl who attempts to make amends for his undemocratic past and a version of Rudolf who spends hours aloof at his Johannesburg writing desk dressed in his Sunday finest holding together the fragile threads of his existence The Schwab family's story brings us closer to grasping the complex choices and motivations that even in extreme situations or perhaps because of them make us human In a world of devastation the letters in From Things Lost act as a surrogate for the gravestones that did not exist and funerals that were never held Readers of personal accounts of the Holocaust will be swept away by this intimate story

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context

Letters from the Lost Helen Waldstein Wilkes,2010 On March 15 1939 Helen Waldstein s father snatched his stamped exit visa from a distracted clerk to escape from Prague with his wife and child As the Nazis closed in on a war torn Czechoslovakia only letters from their extended family could reach Canada through the barriers of conflict The Waldstein family received these letters as they made their lives on a southern Ontario farm where they learned to be Canadian and forget their Jewish roots Helen Waldstein read these letters as an adult this changed everything As her past refused to keep silent Helen followed the trail of the letters back to Europe where she discovered living witnesses who could attest to the letters contents She has here interwoven their stories and her own into a compelling narrative of suffering survivor guilt and overcoming intergenerational obstacles when exploring a traumatic past Edinburgh Companion to Modern Jewish Fiction David Brauner,2015-06-07 This book provides a critical overviews of the main writers and key themes of Anglophone Jewish fiction highlighting the rich diversity of the field identifying key themes analysing the main trends in Anglophone Jewish fiction and situating them in a historical context A Bibliography of Jewish Education in the United States Norman Drachler,2017-12-01 Entries from thousands of publications whether in English Hebrew Yiddish and German on all aspects of Jewish education from pre school through secondary education This book contains entries from thousands of publications whether in English Hebrew Yiddish and German books research reports educational and general periodicals synagogue histories conference proceedings bibliographies and encyclopedias on all aspects of Jewish education from pre school through secondary education The Central and the Peripheral Jakub Lipski,Joanna Malicka,Paweł Schreiber,2014-09-26 Representing reality in terms of secure familiar centres and dangerous lesser known peripheries is one of the most elementary human cognitive instincts However we live in a world where this established division is becoming more and more problematic One person's periphery can be another's centre and many simple geographies of the world and of the mind clearly separating the known from the unknown have become obsolete How can one reconcile this complexity with the fact that human thinking cannot escape the centre periphery dichotomy How is it possible to find one's way in a world in which peripheries become centres and centres turn into peripheries The chapters of this book try to determine how the problem of centres and peripheries has been dealt with in the domains of literature and culture The contributors focus on different aspects of the issue from travel writing through attempts at mapping the self to finding central and peripheral territories in narrative itself

Testimony After Catastrophe Stevan Weine, 2006-08-14 Survivors of political violence give testimonies in families and communities trials and truth commissions religious institutions psychotherapies newspapers documentaries artworks and even in solitude Through spoken written and visual images survivors testimonies tell stories that may change history politics and life itself In this book Stevan Weine a psychiatrist and scholar in the field of mental health and human rights focuses on the testimony of survivors for the hope it might hold hope expressed by survivors again and again that no matter what horrors or humiliations they have endured some good might come of their stories It is through the thinking of Mikhail Bakhtin and his approach to narrative that Weine seeks to read the testimony of survivors of political violence from four different twentieth century historical nightmares and to read them as the stories they are meant to be fully conveying their legitimacy resourcefulness power and finally hope A deeply involving compassionate occasionally confrontational blend of practical hands on experience and dialogic theory emerging from the author's decade long work in Europe and Chicago with survivors of the Balkan wars this book is committed to the proposition that efforts to use testimony to address the consequences of political violence can be strengthened though by no means guaranteed if they are based on a fuller acknowledgment of the personal and ethical elements embodied in the narrative essence of testimony These elements are what Testimony after Catastrophe seeks to reveal

Armenian and Jewish Experience between Expulsion and Destruction Sarah M. Ross, Regina Randhofer, 2021-11-22 Jews and Armenians are often perceived as peoples with similar tragic historical experiences Not only were both groups forced into statelessness and a life outside their homelands for centuries in the 20th century in the shadow of war they were threatened with collective annihilation Thus far academic approaches to these two classical diasporas have been quite different Moreover Armenian and Jewish questions posed during the 19th and 20th centuries have usually been treated separately The conference We Will Live After Babylon that took place in Hanover in February 2019 addressed this gap in research and was one of the first initiatives to deal directly with Jewish and Armenian historical experiences between expulsion exile and annihilation in a comparative framework The contributions in this volume take on multidisciplinary approaches relating to the conference's central themes diaspora minority issues and genocide

From Beneath the Volcano Michael Gorkin, Marta Evelyn Pineda, 2022-04-12 In 1980 El Salvador was plunged into a bloody civil war and Luis Campos a peasant farmer found himself drawn into a deadly political maelstrom of guerrilla fighting for twelve years In this collection of fascinating and revealing oral histories Gorkin and Pineda portray the personal and social lives of Luis and his family who for the past eighteen years have been working to rebuild their lives in their new community beneath the Guazapa volcano Luis his mother his wife his in laws his children and some neighbors recall in a simple and often eloquent manner their experiences of everyday life before during and after the civil war Nina Bonafacia Luis s mother tells of the days before the war when two of her daughters were murdered and she fled with her family to a refugee camp Julia Luis s wife recounts her life as a guerrillera during which incidentally she gave birth to the first two of her eight children Joaquin a neighbor and comrade in arms discusses how he and others took control of the land of Comunidad Guazapa and began rebuilding in those turbulent days and months right after the war Margarita and Francisco the two oldest children with candor and insight discuss the trajectory of their lives and that of the postwar generation And at the center of all these stories stands Luis the guerrillero farmer neighbor husband father and raconteur par excellence In sum the multiple voices in From Beneath the Volcano combine to form a rich tapestry displaying a story of war family and community and provide a never before seen view of both the past and present El Salvador

The Israeli Mind Alon Gratch, 2015-09-01 Israelis are bold and visionary passionate and generous But they can also be grandiose and self absorbed Emerging from the depths of Jewish history and the drama of the Zionist rebellion against it they have a deeply conflicted identity They are willing to sacrifice themselves for the collective but also to sacrifice that very collective for a higher and likely unattainable ideal Resolving these internal conflicts and coming to terms with the trauma of the Holocaust are imperative to Israel s survival as a nation and to the stability of the world Alon Gratch a clinical psychologist whose family has lived in Israel for generations is uniquely positioned to confront these issues Like the Israeli psyche that Gratch details The Israeli Mind is both intimate and universal Intelligent and forthright compassionate but sometimes maddening it is an utterly compelling read Drawing on a broad cultural and historical canvas and weaving in the author s personal and professional experience The Israeli Mind presents a provocative first hand portrait of the Israeli national character

Memory and Migration in the Shadow of War Joy Damousi,2015-11-12 A major new study which evaluates the enduring impact of war on family memory in the Greek diaspora Israeli Documentary Poetry Ilana Rosen,2025-07-29 Israeli Documentary Poetry Coming of Age with the State introduces and explores documentary poetry written by Israeli poets who came of age during the first two decades of the state and who since the 1970s and 1980s have recorded their experiences of that period This study offers a literary cultural analysis of forty two poems by thirty Israeli poets of various backgrounds divided into themes such as memories of the Holocaust and portraits of survivors and their offspring transit locations and situations both en route to and within Israel displacement as a shared fate of Jews and Arabs school and classroom experiences Mizra i women between Levantine patriarchy and Western liberalism and languages of the diaspora versus Hebrew Speaking in God's Name Khaled Abou El Fadl,2014-10-01 Drawing on both religious and secular sources this challenging book argues that divinely ordained law is frequently misinterpreted by Muslim authorities at the expense of certain groups including women Khaled Abou El Fadl cites a series of injustices in Islamic society and ultimately proposes a return to the original ethics at the heart of the Muslim legal system
