Lost in Africa Stu Taylor, 2007 The Retornados from the Portuguese Colonies in Africa Elsa Peralta, 2021-09-09 Placed in the wider scope of post war European decolonisation migrations The Retornados from the Portuguese Colonies in Africa looks at the Return of the Portuguese nationals living in the African colonies when they became independent Using an interdisciplinary research agenda the book presents a collection of research essays written by experts in the fields of anthropology history literature and the arts that look at a wide range of memory narratives through which the Return as well as the experiences of war violence loss and trauma have been expressed contested and internalised in the social realm These narratives include testimonial accounts from the so called retornados from Africa and their descendants as well as works of fiction and public memory novels television series artworks films or social media that have come to mediate the public understanding of this past Through the dialogue between these different narrative modes this book intends to explore the interplay between official memory the lived experience and fiction thus contributing to build an empirical basis to critically discuss the memory of the end of the Portuguese empire within postcolonial Europe This book will be of great interest to postgraduates researchers and academics most notably the ones working in the fields of postcolonial studies cultural studies and memory studies

Lost in Africa Nick Warburton, 2000 Natasha and Colin are staying with their father in Africa He has a row with his boss and decides to leave on Christmas Eve Now they are tramping through a dangerous jungle on a journey into the unknown When will Natasha have the life she wants

Nyerere and Africa Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2007 This is the fourth edition of Nyerere and Africa End of an Era It is also the largest and includes new material not found in previous editions The work is a comprehensive study of the political career of President Julius Nyerere spanning half a century The author takes a critical look at Nyerere's policies and influence in the domestic and international arenas for an objective evaluation of the life and times of one of the most influential leaders in the twentieth century The major role he played in the liberation of southern Africa is just one of the subjects addressed by the author He also provides insights into Nyerere's personality from some of the people who knew him best Included in the book are interviews with some of the people who knew Nyerere since his childhood Some of them were his teachers And they outlived him Others were his schoolmates and colleagues in government and when he was a teacher And some of them were his students Also included are interviews with some of his family members This is an essential study of post colonial Africa It is also a study in political leadership and Cold War politics in the African context among many other subjects addressed in the book which should serve as a reference text for scholars and laymen alike interested in Africa and the Third World in general the West Vince Cable,2025-09-16 As the international order begins to crumble this incisive book asks what the rise of the Asian superstates means for the future The Western dominated world we have known for the past three hundred years is coming to an end As America withdraws from its role as enforcer of the international order other countries are moving in to fill the void Among them are two rising Asian superstates Accounting for more than a third of the world s population China and India have the potential to wield enormous economic and political power China is already vying with the US for the top spot in the global economy and on some measures has surpassed it By the middle of the century India may be number two How will these countries navigate their growing roles on the world stage What are the implications for commerce international law and the fight against climate change Vince Cable has followed China and India for decades first as a professional economist and later as a senior government minister In Eclipsing the West he draws on the latest data and a lifetime of political and economic experience to offer a compelling account of what the rise of the Asian superstates means for the future Portable Roots Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner,2014-06-19 Bicultural individuals often articulate the themes of rootlessness identity formation cultural dissolution and home and reframe them into theological questions Bicultural individuals who have spent their formative childhood years living in and interacting with two or more cultures can be found in immigrant refugee transnational missionary borderland and hybrid communities This book challenges the traditional understanding of human development In particular Portable Roots Transplanting the Bicultural Child underscores the contextual and religious nature of development By focusing on identity formation in children and adolescents who have grown up in more than one culture the parameters of stage theorists such as Erik Erikson are expanded Three samples of children of missionaries formed the initial research population The children were raised in boarding schools mission schools and international schools settings which have been likened to a hybrid or third culture or interstitial space These original three samples first articulated a phenomenon of rootlessness that sent the author on an investigative journey spanning three decades After interviewing many persons with portable roots the study s last sampling in Princeton New Jersey in 2012 articulated what was needed for the end of this quest how transplanted roots thrive in terra firma South African Mining & Engineering Journal ,1921
