Lost Secrets of Flemish Painting Sir Théodore Turquet de Mayerne, Donald C. Fels, 2001      Archival Afterlives
, 2018-07-10 Archival Afterlives explores the posthumous fortunes of scientific and medical archives in early modern Britain If early modern natural philosophers claimed all knowledge as their province theirs was a paper empire But how and why did naturalists engage with archives and in particular with the papers of their dead predecessors This volume makes a firm case for expanding what counts as scientific labour integrating scribes archivist library keepers editors and friends and family of deceased naturalists into the history of science It shows how early modern natural philosophers pursued new natural knowledge in dialogue with their recent material past Finally it demonstrates the sustaining importance of archival institutions in the growth and development of the New Sciences Contributors are Arnold Hunt Michael Hunter Vera Keller Carol Pal Anna Marie Roos Richard Serjeantson Victoria Sloyan Alison Walker and Elizabeth Yale      Theory of the Image
Thomas Nail, 2019-05-15 Theory of the Image offers a new and systematic philosophy of art and aesthetics from the perspective of movement      Routledge Handbook of International Law and the Humanities Shane Chalmers, Sundhya Pahuja, 2021-05-19 This Handbook brings together 40 of the world's leading scholars and rising stars who study international law from disciplines in the humanities from history to literature philosophy to the visual arts to showcase the distinctive contributions that this field has made to the study of international law over the past two decades Including authors from Australia Canada Europe India South Africa the UK and the USA all the contributors engage the question of what is distinctive and critical about the work that has been done and that continues to be done in the field of international law and the humanities For many of these authors answering this question involves reflecting on the work they themselves have been contributing to this path breaking field since its inception at the end of the twentieth century For others it involves offering models of the new work they are carrying out or else reflecting on the future directions of a field that has now taken its place as one of the most important sites for the study of international legal practice and theory Each of the book's six parts foregrounds a different element or cluster of elements of international law and the humanities from an attention to the office conduct and training of the jurist and jurisprudent Part 1 to scholarly craft and technique Part 2 to questions of authority and responsibility Part 3 history and historiography Part 4 plurality and community Part 5 as well as the challenge of thinking and rethinking international legal concepts for our times Part 6 Outlining new ways of imagining and doing international law at a moment in time when original critical thought and practice is more necessary than ever this Handbook will be essential for scholars students and practitioners in international law international relations as well as in law and the humanities more generally      Everlasting Flowers between the Pages Jessie Wei-Hsuan Chen, 2025-09-25 In seventeenth century Europe florilegia were lavishly produced picture books that featured hand drawn or printed illustrations of a wide variety of flowers Many of the plants depicted in florilegia stemmed from the Americas and Asia and were much desired for cultivation and study in European gardens By approaching florilegia as material objects this colourfully illustrated volume offers new insights into how florilegia mirrored different forms of plant knowledge The volume reconstructs the expertise which gardeners compilers of florilegia and image makers must have possessed in order to cultivate the once living specimens and immortalise the flowers on paper and parchment The Materials and Craft of Early Iconographers Mihaela D.

Leonida,2014-03-25 This book describes in detail the materials and techniques used by medieval iconographers It offers information about the natural sources the raw materials the tools and the technologies involved in preparing them The book allows entry into the secretive world of very knowledgeable and skilled artisans about which very little is known Topics covered include raw materials pigments binders solvents adhesives inks and varnishes Special chapters will be dedicated to the fresco technique as practiced by the early iconographers grinding painting on glass and the training apprenticeship of these craftsmen The Varnish and the Glaze Marjolijn Bol,2023-04-21 Introduction The paint that glows Oil and apelles

Vasari s invention of a new paint medium The color of the sun varnishing practice before 1450 Crystal clear changes in varnishing practice 1450 1500 In search of splendor gems and their imitations before 1400 Making glazes practices recipes and reconstructions The Eyckian turning point glazing and the imitation of the visible world The Insect and the Image

Janice Neri,2011 How the picturing of insects inspired new ideas about art science nature and commerce Traces of Vermeer Jane Jelley,2017-07-14 Johannes Vermeer s luminous paintings are loved and admired around the world yet we do not understand how they were made We see sunlit spaces the glimmer of satin silver and linen we see the softness of a hand on a lute string or letter We recognise the distilled impression of a moment of time and we feel it to be real We might hope for some answers from the experts but they are confounded too Even with the modern technology available they do not know why there is no evidence of any preliminary drawing why there are shifts in focus and why his pictures are unusually blurred Some wonder if he might possibly have used a camera obscura to capture what he saw before him The few traces Vermeer has left behind tell us little there are no letters or diaries and no reports of him at work Jane Jelley has taken a new path in this detective story A painter herself she has worked with the materials of his time the cochineal insect and lapis lazuli the sheep bones soot earth and rust She shows us how painters made their pictures layer by layer she investigates old secrets and hears travellers tales She explores how Vermeer could have used a lens in the creation of his masterpieces The clues were there all along After all this time now we can unlock the studio door and catch a glimpse of Vermeer inside painting light Organic Mass Spectrometry in Art and Archaeology Prof Maria Perla Colombini,Prof Francesca

Modugno,2009-07-28 Offers an overview of the analysis of art and archaeological materials using techniques based on mass spectrometry Illustrates basic principles procedures and applications of mass spectrometric techniques Fills a gap in the field of application on destructive methods in the analysis of museum objects Edited by a world wide respected specialists with extensive experience of the GC MS analysis of art objects Such a handbook has been long awaited by scientists restorers and
